

Copenhagen, April 14. On Wednesday last the Court removed to Fredensbourg, where 'tis thought their Majesties will reside best Part of the Summer. The Chamberlain de Cheusses has received his last Instructions, and is preparing to set out for the Hague, where he is to reside in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from this Court.

Dresden, April 14. The King has appointed Count Gersdorff, Grand Bailiff of Upper Lusatia, to be one his Majesty's Privy Council. They continue to make Preparations for the Camp that is to be formed this Summer in the Neighbourhood of this City.

Cassel, April 15. Baron Ullar, Colonel of Horse in the Service of the Landgrave our Sovereign, died here a few Days ago in the 50th Year of his Age.

Berlin, April 18. The King, accompanied by Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick, and a numerous Retinue of General Officers, came here on Monday last from Potsdam; and after giving some Audiences at the Palace, and dining with the Queen Mother, his Majesty returned again to Potsdam. They write from Prentzlow, that on the 5th Instant they had a most violent Storm of Wind, accompanied with Hail, Rain, and most violent Claps of Thunder and Lightning, which greatly alarmed the Inhabitants, who however did not receive so much Damage from it as was expected.

Paris, April 20. They write from Rochelle, that in the Night between the 4th and 5th Instant, they had a most violent Hurricane, which lasted for some Hours, and greatly damaged several Vessels which lay at Anchor in that Road.

Hague, April 24. Prince Birkenfeld, General of Horse in the Service of this Republick, arrived here a few Days ago from Germany, and has since waited on her Royal Highness the Princess Governante, who received him with great Marks of Distinction. On Tuesday last M. Levett took the usual Oaths, at an Assembly of the States General, to qualify himself for the Post of Consul from this Republick to Tunis, in the Room of M. Hudson, who has obtained Leave to resign that Employment.

Greenwich Hospital, April 30, 1753.

The Commissioners of his Majesty's Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich hereby give Notice, That at Salters Hall in London, on Wednesday the 31st of October next (or as soon after as may be) will be lett on Lease for 21 Years or under, A Farm called the Toffis, Part of the Derwentwater Estate, in the Barony of Langley and County of Northumberland, now in Possession of Elizabeth Todd, to be enter'd on the 12th of December next; the Tenant to pay all Taxes and Cesses, Land Tax only excepted, and to be subject to such Covenants in the Leases, as on the Part of the Hospital shall be thought reasonable. Any Person desirous of taking the said Farm, may give in their Proposals in Writing to Mr. Richard Horne, at the Navy Office, London, or to Mess. Walton and Boag, at Ravensworth Castle near Durham.

Admiralty-Office, April 30, 1753.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Mr. Charles Fearn, at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute to the Widows of Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August 1732, as well as to the Widows of those who died since that Time, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Monies as may be due to them on the 31st Day of May next; This is to give Notice thereof, that any Widows who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible; and that all such Widows whose Claims have been already allowed, may send or bring to this Office, by the 31st of next Month, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Pension or Bounty.

London, March 17, 1753.

General Post-Office.

Whereas a Person of about Six Feet high, Fifty Years of Age, of a Swarthy Complexion, much pitted with the Small Pox, and wore a darkish coloured Coat, and a brown Bob Wig, came last Night, about Six of the Clock, to the Shop of Mr. Thomas Harding, Goldsmith, in the Minories, and bought of him a straight bodied Silver Tankard, Weight 25 oz. 18 dwt. with the Letters C. D. marked, by his Desire, on the Handle thereof; and the said Person having given, in Payment, for the said Tankard, a Bank Post Bill, which was taken out of the Cirencester Mail, which was robbed on the 18th of April, 1751, and indorsed the said Bank Post Bill by the Name of Charles Dew.

This is therefore to give Notice to all Goldsmiths and others, to whom the said Tankard may be offered in Sale, that whoever apprehends, or causes to be apprehended the Person above described, who is strongly suspected of having been a Principal, or an Accomplice in the said Robbery, shall, upon Conviction, be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.
