Lisbon, May 12.

DON Antonio Alvarez Da Cunha, Lord of Taboa, &c. embarked some Days ago, for his Government of the Kingdom of Angola.

Moscow, May 17. On the 14th Instant, about Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, a violent Fire broke out here, which destroyed upwards of 200 Houses, and would have occasioned a much more considerable Damage, if her Imperial Majesty, and their Imperial Highnesses the Grand Duke and Dutchess, had not given the most proper and careful Directions for the extinguishing of it: The Empress has been pleased, at the Intercession of his Britannick Majesty, to restore to her Favour the Counts Czernicheff and Leontioff, who had forfeited the same, by a Duel they fought some Time ago.

Leghorn, May 28. We here from Genoa, that the Duke and Dutchess of Wirtemberg, after having staid there two or three Days, had pursued their Journey for Turin, whence they were to proceed on their Return to their own Dominions.

Genoa, June 4. By Letters of the 26th past from Bastia, a Proclamation had been issued the Day before, by M. Grimaldi, the Republick's Commissary General, promising a General Pardon on Behalf of the Republick, to all the Inhabitants of the Island of Corsica, for all Offences committed to that Day; and exhorting the Inhabitants to apply to M. Grimaldi, that he may represent to the Republick, whatever may be desired by the People of the Island. The general Consultation of the Pieves, that was to have been held the last Day of May, has been postponed until the 8th Instant, from which Protraction it is judged, that the Chiefs of the Rebels are not inclined to put an End to the Rebellion by seeking Means of Accommodation, but rather to foment the Divisions, and keep up the Spirit of Animosity, to prevent a Reconciliation between the Republick and the Inhabitants of the Island, who seem to be rather favourably inclined. The Marquis St. George,

Prince of Ardore, who has resided several Years at Paris, as Ambassador Extraordinary from the King of the Two Sicilies, after a Stay here of four Days, set out for Parma on his Way to Naples.

Vienna, June 6. The Prince Jean Adam d'Aversperg's Consort, who was Countess of Shonfeld by her Birth, died here the Day before Yesterday, in the 25th Year of her Age. Stockholm, June 7. Last Sunday the Court went into Mourning for six Weeks, on Account of the Death of Prince Maximilian of Hesse-Cassel. The King has lately granted the Title and Rank of Councillors for Trade, to the Directors of our East India Company.

Ratisbon, June 7. The Dutchess Dowager of Guastalla passed through this Town the Day before Yesterday, on her Way to Carlsbad, where she is to use the Bath of that Place.

Copenhagen, June 9. The Day before Yesterday, their Majesties went from Friedensburg to Fredricksburg, where they intend to reside some Time. Munich, June 9. Ratisbon, June 9. The Imperial Chamber of Wetzlaar, have renewed their Instances to the Diet, in order to obtain proper Orders for the Payment of the Arrears due to them by several Princes and States of the Empire. Chevalier Follard, the French Minister, is returned hither from a Journey he has lately made to the Court of Bareith.

Dresden, June 10. The Troops which are encamped at Ubigau, in the Neighbourhood of this Capital, are daily exercised in all such Branches of the Military Duty, as may be required in Time of War. Last Thursday the Horse and Foot, having been divided in two Corps, and drawn up in Battle Array, made a feign'd Engagement. During the whole Action, their Royal Highnesses the Princes Xavier, Charles and Clement, the prime Minister Count Bruhl, and Prince Lubomirsky, commanded at the Head of their respective Corps. The next day they performed another Exercise, with no less Order and Dexterity, at which were present the whole Court, and a great Number of General Officers in the Service of Foreign Princes; which began by opening of Trenches before a Kind of Fort, built for that Purpose, which is not to be surrendered to the Besiegers, till it has sustained their Attacks for three Days. When that Siege is finished, the Army is to decamp, and the Regiments, of which it is composed, are to return to their former Quarters, or to those which the Court may think proper to assign them.
