Dresden, June 10. The Troops which are encamped at Ubigau, in the Neighbourhood of this Capital, are daily exercised in all such Branches of the Military Duty, as may be required in Time of War. Last Thursday the Horse and Foot, having been divided in two Corps, and drawn up in Battle Array, made a feign'd Engagement. During the whole Action, their Royal Highnesses the Princes Xavier, Charles and Clement, the prime Minister Count Bruhl, and Prince Lubomirsky, commanded at the Head of their respective Corps. The next day they performed another Exercise, with no less Order and Dexterity, at which were present the whole Court, and a great Number of General Officers in the Service of Foreign Princes; which began by opening of Trenches before a Kind of Fort, built for that Purpose, which is not to be surrendered to the Besiegers, till it has sustained their Attacks for three Days. When that Siege is finished, the Army is to decamp, and the Regiments, of which it is composed, are to return to their former Quarters, or to those which the Court may think proper to assign them.

London, March 17, 1753.

General Post-Office.

Whereas a Person of about Six Feet high, Fifty Years of Age, of a Swarthy Complexion, much pitted with the Small Pox, and wore a darkish coloured Coat, and a brown Bob Wig, came last Night, about Six of the Clock, to the Shop of Mr. Thomas Harding, Goldsmith, in the Minories, and bought of him a straight bodied Silver Tankard, Weight 25 oz. 18 dwt. with the Letters C. D. marked, by his Desire, on the Handle thereof; and the said Person having given, in Payment, for the said Tankard, a Bank Post Bill, which was taken out of the Cirencester Mail, which was robbed on the 18th of April, 1751, and indorsed the said Bank Post Bill by the Name of Charles Dew.

This is therefore to give Notice to all Goldsmiths and others, to whom the said Tankard may be offered in Sale, that whoever apprehends, or causes to be apprehended the Person above described, who is strongly suspected of having been a Principal, or an Accomplice in the said Robbery, shall, upon Conviction, be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.
