THE Grand Signor, who at the Beginning of this Month was greatly indisposed, is now much better. 'Tis said his Sublime Highness, after the Example of several European Powers, is determined, for the Future, to have Part of the Ottoman Troops encamped and exercised every Year, in order to their being the better enabled to act upon any Emergency. gage them to take any Precautions for the Publick Health. At the same Time the Regiment of Guards passed in Review, when the Emperor's Pleasure, both with Regard to its being no longer on the Foot of a Regiment of Guards, as well as the Reduction of the common Men's Pay half a Sol per Day was notified to them, leaving the Choice to the latter to accept of a small Sum of Money, and to enter into a new Engagement, or to leave the Service; on which Occasion a few only have quitted. They are to change their Uniform from Red to White, faced with Red, as the Second and Third Regiments, in which there are only small Distinctions. The Regency has received Notice from Leghorne of the Arrival there of the Tun sine Vessel with 30 Moors on Board, which about two Years ago was seized by the Neapolitan Gallies, when at Anchor under a small Fort on the Island del Giglio belonging to Tuscany, which Capture occasion'd a long Contest between the Court of Naples and this State, but has been ended by his Sicilian Majesty's sending the Vessel and Men to Leghorne, at the Disposition of his Minister here, who is to give them up to this Government as a Present, without making Mention of his Court; and on the 17th the Marquis Ginori, Governor of Leghorn, set out from hence, by Order of the Regency, on Return to his Government, with Directions to receive the said Vessel and Men, and to convey them, on the Part of the Regency, to the Bey of Tunis.

Turin, Oct. 24. Her Malady was attended with Convulsions, which at last left her, without any Symptoms of Life, for many Hours. She had before received all the Sacraments, and the Physicians being consulted, they were actually preparing for what is called the Cæsarean Operation, to save the Child, when,

Liege, Nov. 2. An Ordonnance is published here, prohibiting the Exportation or sending of Hops, for the present, out of this Principality, on Pain of forfeiting the same, that Commodity being excessive dear, on Account of the great Quantities that have been lately sold to the Subjects of the neighbouring States.
