From Tuesday December 11, to Saturday December 15, 1753.

Naples, November 13.

LAST Week a Courier arrived here from Madrid, whose Dispatches have occasioned the holding of several Councils. The Differences between this Court and the Maltese are now carried so far, that the Subjects of these Kingdoms are forbid, by the King's express Order, to send any Provisions or Merchandize whatsoever to that Island.

Leghorn, Nov. 15. We learn by the Master of one of our Ships lately arrived in this Port from the Coast of Barbary, that the contagious Distemper, which raged some Time ago at Algiers, is now entirely ceased; and that towards the End of last Month, an Algerine Corsair had brought in a French Ship which she took in the Streights of Gibraltar, under Pretence of her not being provided with a proper Pass.

Parma, Nov. 17. On the 2d Instant the Infanta Dutchess left Genoa, and reached Voltagio that Night, the next Day she reached Novi, and arrived on the 4th at Voghera, where the Marquess d'Ormea attended to compliment her on the Part of the King of Sardinia, through whose Territories she was escorted by a Detachment of Piemontese Horse. On the 5th in the Morning that Princess set out from Voghera, and got that Night to Castel-San-Joanno, where the Infant Duke her Spouse waited her Arrival. On the 6th their Royal Highnesses reached Plafentia, where they rested the 7th, and arrived here on the 8th. That Day the Infanta received the Compliments of the Nobility, Gentry, and Citizens in a Body, upon her Arrival; and the Night concluded with Illuminations and other publick Rejoycings, which were afterwards continued for three Days successively.

Milan, Nov. 18. Count Linden d'Aspremont, who is appointed to command the Imperial Troops in Austrian Lombardy, under the Duke of Modena, arrived here Yesterday in the Afternoon: He was saluted with 24 Pieces of Cannon at his Entrance into this City, and was soon after complimented, upon his Arrival, by the Nobility and principal Officers of the Garrison.

Stockholm, Nov. 20. The Squadron that has been cruising for some Time past in the Baltick, is returned to Carlscroon; and as the Court has received certain Advice of the Russian Squadron's being laid up for the Winter, outs is also ordered to be unrigged.

Genoa, Nov. 22. The Marquess Grimaldi, heretofore Minister Plenipotentiary from Spain to the Court of Sweden, and since named his Catholick Majesty's Ambassador to the States General of the United Provinces, is arrived here to settle his private Affairs, after which he is to set out for the Hague. The French Gallies, which escorted the Infanta Dutchess of Parma, are put to Sea for Antibes. On Friday last the Chevalier de Guevara, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of the Two Sicilies to the Court of Portugal, arrived in this City. He proposes to stay here five or six Days, and then proceed on his Journey to Lisbon. We hear from Cadiz, that an Advice-Boat, dispatched from the Governor of the Havanna, was arrived in that Bay, the Master whereof reports, that towards the Beginning of last Month, there had been a smart Engagement between the Spanish Guarda Costas, and four Dutch Ships, off the Coast of the Caraccas, in which two of the Dutch Ships were sunk, the other two escaping with great Difficulty.

Vienna, Nov. 24. We are informed the Court intends to remove next Thursday from Schonbrun, to reside here for the Winter. Her Imperial Majesty has appointed the Count d'Osttein, Brother to the Elector of Mayence, to be Field Marshal of her Armies. 'Tis said the Marriage of the eldest Son of the Great Chamberlain Count Khevenhuller, with the eldest Daughter of Prince Lichtenstein, will be celebrated in the Month of January next.

Dresden, Nov. 27. The Small Pox is very rife here at present. Prince Clement and the young Count Loos are both seized with it. And Marshal Lowendahl's eldest Daughter is lately dead of that Distemper.

Hague, Dec. 6. M. Geller having been appointed Counsellor of the Admiralty of Frizeland, has taken, in that Quality, the usual Oaths to the Assembly of their High Mightinesses. The Baron de Burmania, Deputy to the Council of State, on the Part of the Province of Frizeland, is arrived here from that Province. We are informed by our last Letters from Germany, that the late Prince of Nassau-Weilbourg has named, by his Will, the Princes of Nassau-Usingen and Nassau-Saarbruck, to be Tutors to the Prince his Son, during his Minority.

[Price Two-Pence.]

General Post - Office,
November 7, 1753.

Whereas a second anonymous Letter has been sent to the Right Honourable Thomas Earl of Leicester, His Majesty's Post-Master-General, in the following Terms:

" My Lord, 1753.
" I don't find that you have ordered Mr. Stockdale to
" be taken down, but you give yourself the Trouble to
" advertise so much Reward, but you will find your-
" self quite mistaken, for we are true Englishmen, we
" are French Men, nor Irish Men, so that we shall
" never discover one another, not for One Thousand,
" much more your One Hundred Pounds; so then if
" Mr. Stockdale are taken down in a Week's Time,
" we will serve you as we said in our last Letter.

" Tuesday, October the 30th. So no more.
P. S. " You need not give yourself any more Trouble
" of advertizing, for we shall all stand true to
" one another, and are resolute to have him down,
" let what will happen."

This is to offer a Reward of Five Hundred Pounds to any who shall or may make Discovery of the Party or Parties concerned in Writing or Sending the above-said Letter, so that he, she or they, be convicted thereof, together with his Majesty's most Gracious Pardon for any Accomplice, who shall make Discovery of the same.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisy, Quinsey, acute Rheumatism, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over against the North Door of the Church, at 2s. 6d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again; and by James Esdall, Printer, on the Blind Quay, Dublin.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6d.
