Whitehall, July 27, 1754.

WHEREAS, on the 17th Instant, a Written Paper of Verses was dropt in the Market Place at Oxford, containing the most infamous and audacious Expressions of Treason, Sedition, and Rebellion, and such false, wicked, and traitorous Aspersions of His Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, as must raise the utmost Indignation and Abhorrence in all those, who have any Sense of the Duty, and Gratitude, they so justly owe to His Majesty, or the least Regard to the Peace and Happiness of the Nation, under His Majesty's most mild and gracious Government: In order that the Author, or Authors, of the said presumptuous, seditious, and treasonable Paper, or any Person, or Persons, concerned in writing, publishing, or dropping the same, as aforesaid, may be discovered, and brought to the Punishment due to so high and heinous an Offence; These are, in His Majesty's Name, strictly to require and enjoin all His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, and all other Civil Magistrates whatsoever; to make diligent Search after the Author or Authors, Publisher or Publishers, of the said seditious, treasonable, infamous, and abominable Paper, and that, on discovering him, her, or them, they do immediately apprehend and seize the said Person, or Persons, and carry him, her, or them, before a proper Magistrate, that the said Offender, or Offenders, may be prosecuted for the said Offence, according to the utmost Rigour of the Law. And all His Majesty's loving Subjects are hereby strictly charged, that they do use their utmost Endeavours to discover and apprehend the said Offender, or Offenders. And for the Encouragement of all Persons to be diligent and industrious in their Endeavours to make such Discovery, His Majesty does, hereby, promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person, or Persons, who shall discover the Author, or Authors, or Publisher, or Publishers, of the said detestable, treasonable, and seditious Paper, or any of them, so as such Offender, or Offenders, be convicted thereof: For the Payment of which aforesaid Reward, His Majesty hath given the necessary Orders to the Lords Commissioners of His Treasury.

HOLDERNESSE.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS our Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the Twenty Second Day of October next, we with the Advice of our Privy Council do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said Twenty Second Day of October to Thursday the Fourteenth Day of November next. And we have given Order to our Chancellor of Great Britain to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly: And we do hereby further declare our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said Fourteenth Day of November next, be held, and sit for the Dispatch of divers weighty and important Affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required to give their Attendance accordingly at Westminster on the said Fourteenth Day of November next.

Given at our Court at Kensington, the Twenty Sixth Day of September 1754, in the Twenty Eighth Year of our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

Kensington, September 26.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to order, That the Convocations of the Provinces of Canterbury and York, which stand prorogued to Wednesday the Twenty Third of October next, should be further prorogued to Friday the Fifteenth Day of November following.

Kensington, September 26.

This Day Signior Vignola, Resident from Venice, had a private Audience of Leave of his Royal Highness the Duke.

And a private Audience of Leave of her Royal Highness the Princess Amelia; to both which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Leghorn, Aug. 30. We hear that an Augmentation of one or two Battalions will shortly be made to the Troops in this Garrison. The Master of a Ship arrived here from the African Coast assures us, that the Bey of Tripoli died on the 24th of last Month, and was succeeded by his Son Sidy-Aly. The said Master adds, that a Tunesian Corsair, of 24 Guns, was lately cast away near Porto-Farino, and all the Crew perished.

Ferrara, Sept. 1. The Cardinal Legate, in order to maintain the publick Tranquility, caused an Edict to be published, forbidding the Subjects of this Country from insulting or molesting the Jews.

Jews settled under the Protection of the Government; which at first occasioned some Tumults among the Populace, several of whom were secured and sent to Goal. An Account of this Affair is sent to Rome, and we wait with Impatience for the Return of the Courier, in order to know the Pope's Intentions before we proceed any farther.

Milan, Sept. 2. The Duke of Modena intends shortly to take a Tour to divers Places in this Dutchy, in order to review the Troops and examine the Magazines and Fortifications. Last Week died at Mazzenta, a Village between this City and Turin, a Peasant, aged 114, who never had any other Illness than that of which he died.

Turin, Sept. 2. They are now busy in filling the Magazines of Novarra, Tortona, Alexandria de la Paglia, and other Places on the Frontiers of the Milanese, for which Purpose great Quantities of Provisions have already been collected together.

Stockholm, Sept. 4. Their Majesties are expected here towards the Middle of this Month, from their Tour into the Southern Provinces of this Kingdom. They write from Carlscroon, that the Squadron, which put to Sea about two Months ago, under the Command of Rear Admiral Sparre, to cruize in the Baltick, is returned into that Port, and is unrigging, in order to be laid up.

Vienna, Sept. 7. We are informed by an Express which arrived here Yesterday from Prague, that their Imperial Majesties set out from thence last Monday Morning for Olmutz, where they propose to stay two or three Days, to examine the Fortifications, and to view the Camp in that Neighbourhood; after which they intend going to Hollitsch, where they will be joined by the Archdukes Joseph and Charles, and the three Archdutchesses. The Palace in this City is fitting up with all Expedition against their Imperial Majesties coming here from Schonbrun for the Winter. 'Tis said the Emperor has ordered two Battalions to be raised for his Guard, one of which is to be always in Garrison at Hollitsch. These are to be all picked Men, tall, straight, and well-proportioned. The Project lately set on Foot for enrolling the Militia in Esclavonia and Croatia, meets with all the Success that could be desired, it appearing by this Means that no less than 50,000 armed Men can be assembled in those two Provinces if Occasion requires. The Marquess d'Azlor, the Spanish Minister, has given the strongest Assurances, in the Name of his Catholick Majesty, that the Alteration in the Spanish Ministry, by the Removal of the Marquess de la Ensanade, will make no Alteration in the good Intelligence which at present subsists between the two Courts.

Besancon, Sept. 7. Several Persons of Distinction are set out from hence for Gray, in order to see the Troops encamped in that Neighbourhood, under the Command of the Duke de Randan. M. de Grammont, formerly Colonel of a Regiment of Dragoons, and who afterwards went into Holy Orders, and in the Space of about twelve Years came to be Archbishop of this City, died this Morning at his Archiepiscopal Palace.

Paris, Sept. 13. On Tuesday last the Duke de Penthevre set out with a numerous Retinue to visit the Maritime Places in Provence. The Sieur Gaspard de Fontenay, Commissary General of Marine, who was heretofore charged with the King's Affairs at the Ottoman Porte, died here on the 5th Instant, in the 81st Year of his Age.

Hanau, Sept. 15. The Elector of Mentz, who has been for some Time at Aschaffembourg, arrived last Friday at Steinheim, a fine Seat in this Neighbourhood, where he intends to stay some Weeks. The same Day the Landgrave of Hesse-Cassel, our Sovereign, arrived at Philipruhe from his late Journey to the Bath at Schlangenbad, from the Waters whereof he received great Benefit.

Hague, Sept. 19. M. de Borch, who was lately appointed by her Royal Highness the Princess Governante, to be Captain of a Company in the Regiment of Orange-Drenthe, has taken the usual Oaths, before the Council of State, to qualify himself for that Employment. The Summonses for an Assembly of the States of this Province, are sent to the respective Towns.

Admiralty Office, September 25, 1754.

Dr. ANDERSON'S, or,

The Famous SCOTS PILLS;

ARE faithfully prepared only by JAMES INGLISH, Son of DAVID INGLISH, deceased, at the Unicorn, over-against the New Church in the Strand, London; and to prevent Counterfeits from Scotland, as well as in and about London, you are desired to take Notice, That the true Pills have their Boxes sealed on the Top (with black Wax) with a Lyon Rampant, and Three Mullets Argent, Dr. Anderson's Head betwixt I. L. with his Name round it, and Isabella Inghish underneath the Shield in a Scroll. They are of excellent Use in all Cases where Purging is necessary, and may be taken with Epsom, Tunbridge, or other Medicinal Waters.

DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleuritis, Quincies, acute Rheumatism, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapors and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again; and by James Esdall, Printer, on the Blind Quay, Dublin.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6 d.
