The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to appoint William Stodart, of Degannwy, Esq; to be Sheriff of the County of Carnarvon.

A P R O C L A M A T I O N,

For Recalling and Prohibiting Seamen from serving Foreign Princes and States; for giving further Encouragement to Seamen to enter themselves on Board His Majesty's Ships of War; and for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves.

G E O R G E R.

WHEREAS We are informed, That great Numbers of Mariners and Seafaring Men, Our natural-born Subjects, are in the Service of divers Foreign Princes and States, to the Prejudice of Our Kingdom; We have therefore thought it necessary, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation; and do hereby strictly charge and command all Masters of Ships, Pilots, Mariners, Seamen, Shipwrights, and other Seafaring Men whatsoever and wheresoever (being Our natural-born Subjects) who are in the Pay or Service of any Foreign Prince or State, or do serve in any Foreign Ship or Vessel, that forthwith they, and every of them, do (according to their known and bounden Duty and Allegiance) withdraw themselves, depart from, and quit such Foreign Services, and return Home to their native Countries: And farther, We do hereby strictly prohibit and forbid all Masters of Ships, Pilots, Mariners, Seamen, Shipwrights, and other Seafaring Men whatsoever (being Our natural-born Subjects) from entering, and do charge and command them, and every of them, from henceforth, to forbear to enter themselves into the Pay or Service of any Foreign Prince or State, or to serve in any Foreign Ship or Vessel whatsoever, without Our special Licence first had and obtained in that Behalf; to all which We expect due Obedience, and exact Conformity. And We do hereby publish and declare, That the Offenders to the contrary shall not only incur Our just Displeasure, but be proceeded against for their Contempt, according to the utmost Severities of the Law. And We do hereby declare, That if any such Masters of Ships, Pilots, Mariners, Seamen, Shipwrights, or other Seafaring Men (being Our Subjects) shall be taken in any Foreign Service, by the Turks, Algerines, or any others, they shall not be reclaimed by Us as Subjects of Great Britain. And We do hereby further promise and declare, That a Reward of Two Pounds for every Able, and Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, shall be paid any Person who shall discover any Seaman or Seamen who may secrete themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen shall be taken for Our said Service by any of Our Sea Officers employed for raising Men; the said Rewards to be paid for any Seaman or Seamen so discovered and taken in and about London, by the principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy; and at the Out-ports by the Naval Officers (where there are any) and (where there are no Naval Officers) by the Collectors of Our Customs, immediately upon a Certificate being produced to the said Principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy, Naval Officers, or Collectors respectively, by the Person who may make Discovery of any Seaman or Seamen as aforesaid, certifying his Name, and the Name or Names, and Number of Seamen procured in Consequence of his Discovery; the said Certificate to be given by such Officer as may take such Seaman or Seamen for Our Service.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Sixth Day of February, 1755, and in the Twenty eighth Year of Our Reign, G O D save the K I N G.

Algier, Dec. 17. On the 11th Instant, about Eight o'Clock in the Morning, the Dey was assassinated in his Palace, and the Grand Treasurer mortally wounded, by six Soldiers, Desperadoes, whilst the Dey, and the Treasurer were distributing the Pay to the Soldiery, in the Court Yard of his Palace. They were at last cut to Pieces; tho' not so soon, but that Things hung in the Ballance, for more than Half an Hour, whether the Government would be subverted or not. The Treasurer is since dead of his Wounds; he had a Pistol Ball in his Collar Bone, two deep Wounds in his Arm, two Cuts with a Sabre cross his Head, his Right Hand cut off, and the other cleft down to his Wrist. One of the Rebels, after receiving the Pay, and taking the Dey's Hand to kiss according to Custom, drew a concealed Dagger, and thrust it through the Dey's Breast, then fired a Pistol, which wounded the Dey in the Side. The Dey rose, and walked a few Yards, calling out to his Attendants, &c. "If amongst so many of them, they could not destroy such a Villain, and then dropt." Another at the same Time assassinated the Treasurer. The first Conspirator, after killing the Dey, took off his (the Dey's) Turbant, and putting it on his Head, seated himself where the Dey had sat; and thinking himself secure, from the Sanction of the Seat, (which, altho' he had just violated, from a vulgar Notion prevailing here, he perhaps thought, if he could once attain, he should be acknowledged Sovereign) he began to harangue the Divan, and the Dey's Secretaries, who were all seated near him; telling them, that he would govern them; that he would make War with some Powers, this Country being at Peace with too many; that he would do Justice to all; brandishing his drawn Sabre in his Hand. He bid them order the Dey's Band of Musick (who were there) to play, and the Drums to beat; which the Divan were forced to order. He had sat, thus unmolested, for more than a Quarter of an Hour, whilst the five others were at work with their Pistols and Sabres. When, in this Crisis, (for had he sat but a Quarter of an Hour longer, the Guns had been fired, and he had been acknowledged Sovereign) one of the Chiauses, or Messengers in the Palace, took Courage, and snatching up a Carabine, fired it at him and killed him: This Example was followed by some other Chiauses, and his five Accomplices were also soon destroyed.

Tho' there appeared but six Actors, it is believed there must have been more at Hand; but that the Rest, who were perhaps ready to join, on the first Appearance of Success, finding afterwards that Things went ill, stole off in the Crowd; for the Dey was at that Time giving the Pay to no less than 300 Soldiers, in his Court Yard. Yet, as incredible as it seems, 'tis much more so, that it should have been (as it was) very near succeeding: For 'tis acknowledged, on all Hands, and even the new Dey, (since made) declared, That had the Conspirator kept his Seat a few Minutes longer, all would have been lost, and the Government subverted.

These Men seem to have laid their Scheme, and founded their Hopes on a Circumstance, which one would have thought would have render'd the Attempt absolutely impossible, but which, however, had brought it very near being accomplished, viz. The Number of Soldiers then receiving their Pay, who indeed always enter without any Arms, when they receive it; but when the Conspirators fell to Work, the Soldiers, not imagining such an Attempt could be made by Six Men, without Numbers at Hand to back them, uncertain, for some Time, what Part to take, ran all away by a private back Door, to their Barracks, lest they might be suspected to be of the Number of the Conspirators, and the Guard of the Dey's Palace (who always wait without the Gates completely armed) might come in upon them: But the Gates having been shut by some of the Conspirators, the Guard could not get in to the Dey's Defence, or perhaps had not the Courage to attempt it, as they concluded, on hearing the Pistol-Shots, and the Confusion, that all the Soldiers within were Confederates, and had come secretly armed for that Purpose. Many more Persons were wounded besides the Hasnagge or Treasurer.

Ali Bashaw, the Aga of the Spahis, or Generalissimo, was immediately sent for, and placed in the Seat of the murdered Dey: The Cannon were fired, and, in one Hour's Time, from the most disturbed Situation imaginable, perfect Tranquillity was restored to the City.

The present Dey's Name is Ali Bashaw: He is a hearty, hale, robust Man, of about 46 Years old. The late Dey had reigned about six Years, and was arrived to the Age of 75.

'Tis said the Conspirator, who killed the Dey, and sat in his Seat, had been bastonaded last Year, by the Dey's Order, for some Crime. The Conspirators were all Soldiers; one of them (as every Soldier here is a Mechanick) spun Linnen, and another of them was a Cobler.

Cherif Mehemet, who was sent some Time ago with some Troops against the Cabaylies, and had Success against them, has succeeded the new Dey in his Post of Aga or Generalissimo; and the Chiause, whose Resolution and Courage saved the State in so great a Crisis, is made Treasurer to the new Dey.
