AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 27th Day of May 1755.

The Lords Justices in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-sixth of April last, for paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily Enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying Rewards to Persons discovering any Seamen who should conceal themselves, will expire upon this Day: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some longer Time—The Lords Justices do therefore Order, and it is hereby Ordered, with the Advice of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council, that the Bounty of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, of Forty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, and of Twenty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall enter themselves in the Royal Navy on or before the Twenty-fourth Day of June next; and that the Reward of Forty Shillings to Persons discovering any Able Seaman or Seamen, who shall conceal themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's said Service, be likewise continued to be paid until the said Twenty-fourth Day of June next inclusive.—Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Sharpe.

Madrid, May 13. We have received Advice, that the two Men of War, which failed lately from Alicant, are safely arrived at Cadiz, with several Dutch Merchantmen under their Convoy.

Berlin, May 24. The King, accompanied by Prince Frederick of Brunswick, and several General Officers, arrived here on Thursday last from Potzdam, in order to review the Troops of this Garrison, and several other Regiments of Horse and Foot that were ordered to assemble in the Plain of Templow for that Purpose; who, after going through their whole Exercise, marched off for their respective Quarters. The Margrave Henry, and the two Princesses his Sisters, are gone to Stoltzenberg, where they propose to stay some Time.

Berlin, May 27. We hear from Freystadt in Lower Silesia, that the River Sieger overflowed its Banks a few Days ago, and laid that Town under Water; and that the Stream ran with such Rapidity, as to break down several Arches of the Bridge. By this Accident a great Number of Houses were very much damaged, and several Persons were drowned.

Vienna, May 24. The first Battalion of the Regiment of Leopold-Daun, that arrived here the latter End of last Week, to replace a Battalion of the Regiment of Colloredo, were reviewed on Wednesday Morning by their Imperial Majesties, who came from Schonbrunn for that Purpose. Yesterday died in this City, in the 83d Year of her Age, Anne-Marguerite, Princess Dowager of Estershausen, formerly Great Mistress of the Household to the late Empress Amelia.

Copenhagen, May 24. The King, who arrived here last Night from Fredensbourg, intends to return thither again on Tuesday next. The Regiments appointed to form a Camp near this City, will be all assembled this Evening; and their Majesties, with the Royal Family, intend to remove in a few Days from Fredensbourg to Fredericksberg, in order to review those Troops, and see them go through their Exercise.

Manheim, May 28. The Elector our Sovereign's Intention of visiting the Dutchies of Juliers and Burgues, is laid aside for some Time; his Electoral Highness having declared his Resolution of setting out, on the 3d of next Month, for Schwetzingen, where he proposes to spend Part of the Summer with the Electress his Spouse.

Hague, June 3. Her Royal Highness the Princess Governante, who is in perfect Health with her Children at Soestdyk, is expected here next Saturday. The Deputies, whom their High Mightinesses have appointed to go into Dutch Flanders, to change the Magistrates of the several Towns, will set out the End of this Week, or the Beginning of next, in order to acquit themselves of that Commission.

Custom-House, London, June 13, 1755.

The Receiver General of his Majesty's Customs gives Notice, that he will be ready on the 25th of June Instant, and the four following usual Days of Payment, to pay all Out-Port Corn Debentures that were presented to the Commissioners between the 16th of May 1754 exclusive, and the 5th of June following inclusive, and which became due between the 16th of August 1754 exclusive, and the 5th of September following inclusive, together with Interest thereon to the said 25th of June, at Three per Cent per Annum; pursuant to an Act of 26 Geo. II. and that Interest will cease thereon from that Day.

London, June 12, 1755.

Notice is hereby given, that a General Court of the Corporation called the Governor and Company for working of Mines, Minerals and Metals, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, will be held at the San Fire-Office behind the Royal Exchange, on Thursday the 24th of July next, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon, in order to consider of a Dividend.

Royal Exchange Assurance Office, June 4, 1755.

The Court of Directors of the Royal Exchange Assurance Company do hereby give Notice, that their Transfer Books will be shut from Thursday the 19th Day of June Instant, to Tuesday the 22d of July next; And that a General Court of the said Company will be held at their Office on the Royal Exchange, on Wednesday the 25th of this Instant, at Eleven of the Forenoon, to consider of a Dividend.
