

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 24, to Saturday June 28, 1755.

Gibraltar, May 30.

CAPTAIN Maplesden, in his Majesty's Sloop Fortune, returned hither this Day from Salle, with the Vessel, Cargo, Crew, and Passengers, lately seized off Arzila by the Saletine Cruizer, which has been restored without the least Plunder or Embezzlement; and the most solemn Protestations have been made by the Bashaw and Government, that they are determined to shew the greatest Regard to the English Nation and Colours. On the Arrival of this Vessel and People from Salle, several Moors, whom the Governor had detained here on Account of the late Capture, were immediately set at Liberty.

Warsaw, May 31. Last Monday Morning Sir Charles Hanbury Williams, Ambassador from the King of Great Britain to the Court of Russia, who has been here for some Days, continued his Journey for Petersbourg. Count Flemming, Treasurer of Lithuania, who arrived here a few Days ago, was attacked on the Road near Socharczew, by a Gang of Robbers, who took from him all his Money, and every Thing else of Value.

Wurtzbourg, June 6. On Wednesday last our new Prince Bishop received the Homage of the Officers of the several Regiments of Horse and Foot in his Service; and on Monday next his Serene Highness is to receive the same from the Magistrates of this City in a Body.

Copenhagen, June 7. On Wednesday Morning last the King made a general Review of the Troops encamped in the Neighbourhood of this City; after which they filed off before the Queen, who sat in a magnificent Tent prepared for that Purpose.

Vienna, June 7. Yesterday Count Canales, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Sardinia to this Court, received, from the Hands of the Emperor, the Investiture of the States the King his Master possesses in Italy, by the Title of Fiefs of the Empire. On Tuesday last their Imperial Majesties, accompanied by the three Archdukes, and attended by several General Officers, and many Lords and Ladies of the Court, came from Schonbron, and reviewed the three Battalions of the Regiment of Leopold-Daun, which make Part of this Garrison. On the 25th of last Month, a Fire broke out in the Suburbs of Lintz in Austria, which burnt down two Rows of Barracks and about 60 Houses; and several Persons perished in the Flames.

Frankfort, June 9. The Princes of Nassau-Sarbruck and Usingen, who have been for several Months in France, are returned to their respective Residences. On Thursday last the Landgrave of Hesse-Darmstadt reviewed Part of his Troops, which were assembled by his Orders in the Neighbourhood of Darmstadt.

Moulins in Bourbonnois, June 9. In the Night between the 2d and 3d Instant, a Fire broke out in the Apartment belonging to the Marquess des Gouttes in the Castle, which was almost reduced to Ashes. When the Apartment was in Flames, M. Herbouche, belonging to the Gendarmes, being touched with the Concern of the Marquess for his Children, rushed into their Room with one of the Domesticks, and was of great Service in preserving them.

Aranjuez, June 9. The Marquis de las Amarillas, appointed Vice-Roy of Mexico, came to Court some Days ago, to kiss the Hands of their Catholick Majesties, in order to proceed on his Journey to Cadiz, from whence he is to embark for America. The Duke de St. Estevan was lately married to a Daughter of the Duke de Medina-Celi, Prince Catholick, a Sicilian Nobleman, and a Grandee of Spain of the First Class, lately arrived from Italy, has been presented to their Catholick Majesties, by Prince Yasi, the Neapolitan Ambassador, and met with a very gracious Reception.

Dresden, June 10. Count Miniszeck, Great Chamberlain of Lithuania, being appointed to compliment the new Sultan on his Advancement to the Ottoman Throne, and to renew the Treaty of Peace and Alliance subsisting between the Republick of Poland and the Porte, he is accordingly preparing to set out for Constantinople, in order to acquit himself of those Commissions. On Tuesday Night last Count Gersdorff, one of the King's Privy Counsellors, and Super-Intendant of the Commerce, was seized in his Coach with an Apoplectick Fit, and died the next Morning.

Hambourg, June 13. The Hereditary Prince of Hesse-Cassel, who has resided here for about two Months, set out this Morning on his Return to Cassel.

Hague, June 17. Her Royal Highness the Princess Governante went last Friday with a numerous Retinue to Vlaardingien, to see the Fleet destined for the Herring Fishery, which sailed that Day. M. Cornet, Resident from the Electors