

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 27, to Saturday May 1, 1756.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 29th Day of April 1756,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Royal Proclamations bearing Date the Twentieth Day of October, and the Eighteenth Day of December last, to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder to any Parts beyond the Seas, for the respective Times therein expressed:—And whereas an Act hath been passed in the present Session of Parliament, to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition, and to empower His Majesty, by Proclamation or Order in Council, to prohibit the Exporting or attempting to Export Salt Petre out of this Kingdom, as likewise to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, for such Time, and in such Manner, and under such Restraints, as His Majesty shall think fit:—And His Majesty judging it necessary for the Publick Good, at this critical Conjunction, to continue the Prohibition on the Exportation of Gunpowder, which now subsists by Virtue of His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation of the Eighteenth of December last, for some longer Time; and also to prohibit the Exporting of Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition out of this Kingdom, or carrying the same Coastwise, for the like Time, doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit and Command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever, (except the Master General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, from the Date of this His Majesty's Order in Council, presume to Transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or Ship or Lade any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by the aforementioned Act.—And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Sharpe.

[ Price Four-Pence. ]

Kensington, May 1.

The following Address of the Governor, Sheriff, Justices, Clergy and Gentlemen of the County of Monaghan, having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Henry Fox, Esq; one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Governor, Sheriff, Justices, Clergy and Gentlemen of the County of Monaghan, in the Kingdom of Ireland.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governor, Sheriff, Justices, Clergy and Gentlemen of the County of Monaghan, being truly sensible of the many invaluable Blessings we have enjoyed, since the Accession of your most Illustrious House, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our humble and sincere Thanks for the Instance you have given us of your paternal Care and Concern in providing for our Defence, at a Time when your Dominions are daringly threatened with an Invasion by the common Enemy of the Peace of Europe.

We shall look upon every Attempt which tends to disturb your Majesty's propitious Reign with the highest Resentment and Indignation; as our present happy Constitution in Church and State are inseparably connected with your Safety. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our Zeal, Cheerfulness and Resolution, not only to oppose every Insolent Invader, but, to the utmost of our Power, and at the Hazard of every Thing that is valuable to us, on all Occasions to defend your Sacred Person and Government.

The following Address of the Lord Bishop, Lord Lieutenant, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Bishop, Lord Lieutenant, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THOUGH it was not without Indignation that we first heard the uncertain Reports of a Purpose to invade your Majesty's Dominions, yet since it now appears, by your Majesty's gracious Message to both Houses of Parliament, that