AT the Court at Kensington, the 29th Day of April 1756,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Royal Proclamations bearing Date the Twentieth Day of October, and the Eighteenth Day of December last, to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder to any Parts beyond the Seas, for the respective Times therein expressed:—And whereas an Act hath been passed in the present Session of Parliament, to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition, and to empower His Majesty, by Proclamation or Order in Council, to prohibit the Exporting or attempting to Export Salt Petre out of this Kingdom, as likewise to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, for such Time, and in such Manner, and under such Restraints, as His Majesty shall think fit:—And His Majesty judging it necessary for the Publick Good, at this critical Conjuncture, to continue the Prohibition on the Exportation of Gunpowder, which now subsists by Virtue of His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation of the Eighteenth of December last, for some longer Time; and also to prohibit the Exporting of Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition out of this Kingdom, or carrying the same Coastwise, for the like Time, doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit and Command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever, (except the Master General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, from the Date of this His Majesty's Order in Council, presume to Transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or Ship or Lade any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by the aforementioned Act.—And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Sharpe.

Kensington, May 4.

The following Address of the Governor, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Louth, having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Henry Fox, Esq; one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty;

The most humble Address of the Governor; High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy; and Freeholders, of the County of Louth.

May it please your Majesty;

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governor, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Louth, beg Leave to offer our most humble Thanks to your Majesty; for your paternal Care in providing every Thing necessary for our Safety and Defence at this critical Juncture, and to assure your Majesty; that we will, with the greatest Alacrity and Zeal; assist, to the utmost of our Power, in repelling every insolent Invader of your Majesty's Dominions: And we humbly beg Leave to express our most determined Resolution to risque, on all Occasions, every Thing that is dear to us, in the Defence of your Sacred Person and Government; being full of the deepest Sense of Gratitude for the many Blessings we have enjoyed under the Protection of your Royal House, and firmly persuaded, that the Protestant Succession; and the Civil and Religious Rights and Liberties of these Nations; must stand and fall together:

The following Address of the Governor, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Armagh, having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Henry Fox, Esq; one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty;

The humble Address of the Governour, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Armagh, assembled at the Assizes at Armagh, the 13th Day of April 1756.

May it please your Majesty;

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, truly sensible of the many inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most gracious and auspicious Government, beg Leave; in this critical Time of Danger, with all Steadiness and Unanimity, to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Person and Government;

We
