From Tuesday May 4, to Saturday May 8, 1756.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 29th Day of April 1756,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Royal Proclamations bearing Date the Twentieth Day of October, and the Eighteenth Day of December last, to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, to any Parts beyond the Seas, for the respective Times therein expressed:—And whereas an Act hath been passed in the present Session of Parliament, to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition, and to empower His Majesty, by Proclamation or Order in Council, to prohibit the Exporting or attempting to Export Salt Petre out of this Kingdom, as likewise to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, for such Time, and in such Manner, and under such Restraints, as His Majesty shall think fit:—And His Majesty judging it necessary for the Publick Good, at this critical Conjunction, to continue the Prohibition on the Exportation of Gunpowder, which now subsists by Virtue of His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation of the Eighteenth of December last, for some longer Time; and also to prohibit the Exporting of Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition out of this Kingdom, or carrying the same Coastwise, for the like Time, doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit and Command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever, (except the Master General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, from the Date of this His Majesty's Order in Council, presume to Transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or Ship or Lade any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by the aforementioned Act.—And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Sharpe.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 6th Day of May, 1756.

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council.

This Day, by His Majesty's Command, William Blair, Esq; was sworn one of the Clerks of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council in Ordinary; and Stephen Cottrell, Esq; was likewise, by His Majesty's Command, sworn one of the Clerks of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council in Extraordinary.

Kensington, May 8.

The following Address of the Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy and Gentlemen of the County of Pembroke, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir William Owen, Bart. Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the said County: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy and Gentlemen of the County of Pembroke, assembled at the Great Sessions holden for the said County, beg Leave to take this Opportunity of assuring your Majesty of our most unfeigned Duty and Loyalty to your most Sacred Person, Family and Government, and that we look on the present Attempt to invade these Kingdoms, by our constant and inveterate Enemies the French, with all the Resentment and Indignation so unjust and insolent an Enterprize deserves. When we consider the superior Happiness this Country enjoys under your Majesty's most mild and gracious Government, there is little Wonder, that these our perfidious Neighbours should look with Envy and Impatience on a Situation which they they must always admire but cannot imitate : Your Majesty's paternal Care and Tenderneſs of your People, exerted at this Time in a moſt particular and extraordinary Manner for their Defence, call for our warmeſt Acknowledgements and Gratitude ; We, on our Parts, muſt appear quite inſenſible and undeſerving of the great Bleſſings we enjoy, if we do not, by the utmoſt Exertion of our Duty and Loyalty, on the preſent Occaſion, contribute all we can in Support of your Maſteſty and your Government, by which alone we can hope or expect to perpetuate the ſame inſeſtimable Bleſſings to our Poſterity. We therefore beg Leave to aſſure your Maſteſty that we, in our ſeveral Stations, will uſe our utmoſt Vigilance and Care to preſerve the internal Peace and Tranquility of our County, as well as every Means in our Power to repel any Attempt that may be made from without, being ready and willing, with the utmoſt Chearfulneſs, to hazard our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Maſteſty and our moſt excellent Conſtitution.

Paris, May 1. We have received Advice by an Officer diſpatched from Marſhal Richelieu, that on the 18th paſt, M. de la Galiffoniere's Squadron caſt Anchor before Ciudadella in the Iſland of Minorca ; that on that and the following Day the Troops diſembarked, without Oppoſition ; and the Engliſh being retired to the Fort of St. Phillips, our Troops were proceeding to the Attack of it.

Admiralty Office, April 8.

By a Letter from the Honourable Auguſtus Hervey, Captain of His Maſteſty's Ship the Phoenix, dated from Villa Franca, April the 18th, there is Advice, That he was ſent from Mahon by Commodore Edgcumbe to Leghorne, to take in Stores, and had proceeded to Villa Franca, in order to receive any Letters he ſhould find there from England for the Commodore ; that finding the French Fleet had ſailed from Toulon on the 13th of the Iſland of Minorca, he intended ſailing that Evening, and endeavouring to get into the Harbour of Mahon ; or if it ſhould be ſo blocked up by the French as to make it impoſſible for his Ship to get in, he ſhould try in ſome other Manner to convey to Mr. Edgcumbe the News of a Fleet being actually ſailed from England for their Aſſiſtance and Relief, and endeavour to get the Commodore's Orders for his farther Proceedings : That if he ſhould not be able to receive thoſe Orders, he would then go away for Gibraltar, and cruize in the Gutt, in Hopes of meeting the Engliſh Fleet.—He ſends alſo the following Liſt of the French Fleet, viz.

Line of Battle Ships.

L'Achille	— 64	L'Alcion	— 50

Frigates.

Guns.		Guns.
La Pomone	— 36	La Gracieuſe	— 24
Le Zephir	— 30	La Nymphe	— 20
La Roſe	— 30

About 180 Transports, 90 of which are Tartans and Settees : They have a Majorca Xebecque, which is ſaid to ſerve as a Pilot for the Craft.

He adds, That the whole Number of Troops, Labourers, &c. &c. &c. ſhut up in the Caſtle of St. Phillips, amounted to 5000 Men ; that the French Army doth not exceed 12,000 ; ſo that he thinks the Attack upon the Caſtle of St. Phillips, will ſcarce be effectual, before the Fleet, under Admiral Byng, will probably arrive ; and that all neceſſary Precautions were taking when he left Mahon, for the Defence of Fort St. Phillips, and the beſt Diſpoſition made for that of the Harbour.

Captain Cole, in a Blunder from Seville, on the 19th of April, being then in the Latitude of 43. 39 Longitude, by Account 13 M. to the Weſt of the Rock of Lisbon, ſaw ten Sail of Engliſh Ships of War, with two Admirals, one having a Blue Flag at the Main-top-maſt, the other a Red one at the Mizzen-top-maſt-head, the Wind blowing freſh at S. W. and continued to do ſo till the 22d. then for three Days from S. E. to E.

Conſtantinople, April 2. Zaide Paſcha, who has continued in the Poſt of Vizir ſomewhat more than five Months, was Yeſterday ſuddenly depoſed, and exiled to Stanchio. The Janizar Aga is appointed Caimachan until the Arrival of Muſtapha Paſcha, who occupied that high Office on the Sultan's Acceſſion : He is ſent for from the Morea with great Diſpatch, to fill it a ſecond Time. The Reaſon aſſign'd for this Change was the common People's complaining about the Bread. Abdy Eſendi, formerly Reis Eſendi, and Yeghen Eſendi, the Cheaia, who were depoſed and baniſhed at the ſame Time, are returned hither by immediate Permiſſion from the Grand Seigneur. The Captain Paſcha is preparing to ſail, in a few Days, for the Archipelago. He is ſent out ſooner than uſual to give chaſe to ſome Malteſe and other Corſairs who have committed ſome Inſolencies on the Iſlands. The Foreign Miniſters are ſucceſſively taking their Audiences as uſual on his Departure.

Turin, April 10. 'Tis reported here, that Orders will ſpeedily be iſſued for augmenting our Troops. And they are working with great Diligence at the Fortifications of Demont, Suza, and Fenestrelles, in order to put them in a proper State of Defence.

Prague, April 17. The Imperial Officers are very ſucceſſful in raiſing Recruits in this Kingdom, for their reſpective Regiments quartered in Hungary.

Dantzick, April 17. For ſeveral Days paſt we have had ſuch tempeſtuous Weather, that the Navigation upon our Coaſt has been very hazardous, and great Damage has been done amongſt amongst the small Craft. We are informed by our last Letters from the Ukraine, that a contagious Distemper has not only manifested itself in that Province, but likewise at Kilia, a Town of the Bessarabia, under the Dominion of the Grand Seignior.

Madria, April 19. Letters from Cartagena, of the 14th of April, mention, that Advice had been received there of a Vessel having arrived at Mahon from Algier with a foul Bill of Health, on Account of the Plague having broke out in that City, of which twenty to twenty-five Persons died daily. And that the Health-Office had received Information from the Alcalde de Roquettes, that an English Pink called San Antonio, Francis Bartol, Master, had arrived there the 6th Instant from Algier, bound to Arzeo, and that he had ordered her away immediately without permitting the least Communication with her. This Vessel was described to be square rigged forward, and Lateens abaft, with her Head and Stern painted Black. Their Catholick Majesties intend to set out for Aranjuez on Wednesday the 21st Instant, and the Orders for the Departure of the Court have been issued accordingly. The Conde de Aranda is returned from his Embassy at Lisbon, and his Catholick Majesty has conferred upon his Excellency the Honour of the Order of the Golden Fleece.

Dresden, April 20. The Queen, who has been greatly indisposed for several Days past, is now perfectly recovered.

Coblentz, April 21. Yesterday the Corps of our late Elector, which has been deposited at the Castle of Ehrenbreitstein ever since the Death of that Prince, was carried from thence to Treves, in order to its being interred, with great Funeral Pomp and Solemnity, in the Metropolitan Church of that City.

Whitehall, May 8.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Richard Whatley, Esq; to be Consul General at Tetuan, in the Dominions of the Emperor of Morocco, in the room of William Peticrew, Esq; deceased.
