AT the Court at Kensington, the 29th Day of April 1756,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Royal Proclamations bearing Date the Twentieth Day of October, and the Eighteenth Day of December last, to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder to any Parts beyond the Seas, for the respective Times therein expressed:—And whereas an Act hath been passed in the present Session of Parliament, to inforce the Law for impowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition, and to impower His Majesty, by Proclamation or Order in Council, to prohibit the Exporting or attempting to Export Salt Petre out of this Kingdom, as likewise to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, for such Time, and in such Manner, and under such Restraints, as His Majesty shall think fit:—And His Majesty judging it necessary for the Publick Good, at this critical Conjunction, to continue the Prohibition on the Exportation of Gunpowder, which now subsists by Virtue of His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation of the Eighteenth of December last, for some longer Time; and also to prohibit the Exporting of Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition out of this Kingdom, or carrying the same Coastwise, for the like Time, doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit and Command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever, (except the Master General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, from the Date of this His Majesty's Order in Council, presume to Transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or Ship or Lade any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by the aforementioned Act.—And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Kensington, May 11.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Clergy and Gentlemen of the County of Cumberland, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir John Pennington, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Fitzwilliams, one of the Lords of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Clergy and Gentlemen of the County of Cumberland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects beg Leave, at this critical Conjunction, when an Invasion is threatened by the French, to express our utmost Detestation and Abhorrence of so unjust and desperate an Enterprize.

Permit us, with Hearts full of Loyalty and Gratitude, most humbly to assure your Majesty, that we are so truly sensible of the many great and inestimable Blessings we enjoy in our Civil and Religious Rights and Liberties, under your Majesty's most just and gracious Administration and Government, that we think it our truest Interest, as well as indispensable Duty, (though at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes) to endeavour, to the utmost of our Power, to support and defend your Majesty, and the Protestant Succession in your most Illustrious and Royal House, not doubting but the Divine Providence, which has so often interposed to preserve us from the avowed and secret Designs of our Enemies, will give Success to your Majesty's Endeavours and Arms upon this present Conjunction.

The following Address of the States of the Island of Jersey, has been presented to His Majesty by Lieutenant General Huske, Governor of the said Island, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Fitzwilliams, one of the Lords of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the States of your Majesty's Island of Jersey.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR faithful Subjects, the States of your Island of Jersey, have been struck with Concern, and fired with Indignation, upon hearing, that your Majesty's Enemies had formed the daring Design of invading, in a hostile Manner, your Majesty's Kingdoms.

Permit us to take the most early Opportunity to express the high Detestation we have of any Measures that may tend to disturb your Majesty's Reign, or to insult the Dignity of your Crown.

The Usurpations committed upon your American Dominions, in Violation of Treaties, and during the most profound Peace, have unavoidably obliged your Majesty to assert the Rights of your Crown, and to support and maintain the Possessions of your Subjects, against an audacious Invader.

The great Disturbers of the publick Tranquillity considering your Majesty as the Supporter and Perseverer of the Liberties of Europe, and as such the grand Obstacle to their ambitious Views, rashly threaten to attack your Majesty in the very Heart of your British Dominions.

But the Justice of your Majesty's Reign, your paternal Care of your Subjects, the free Enjoyment you grant them of all their Rights, both Religious and Civil, will not fail to animate every one, who has a Sense of Liberty, with a zealous and vigorous Resolution, in Defence of your Majesty, and of your Kingdoms.

Animated by the Example of our Ancestors, and sensible of our present Happiness, and of the Duties we owe to the best of Kings, we shall always, with the utmost Readiness, expose whatever is dear to us, for the Service of your Majesty; and we declare, from the Bottom of our Hearts, that no Times nor Dangers will ever shake our Zeal and strong Attachment to the Illustrious House of Hanover; but we are deeply affected that our bounded Abilities will not suffer us to co-operate, with greater Efficacy, in Support of your Majesty, and of your Government. We firmly expect that your Majesty's Enemies will soon be made sensible, that the Powers and Rights of your Majesty's Crown are not to be attacked or violated with Impunity; and that Great Britain is not to be intimidated by the Menaces of an ambitious Neighbour, when blessed with a King endowed with a Resolution that has remained unshaken in Times of the greatest Danger.

As we doubt not of the united Zeal of your Subjects in Support of your Majesty and of your Government, and to vindicate the just Rights of your Crown, we hope your Majesty's strenuous Endeavours to procure Happiness and Security to your People, will be attended with Success; and that God will grant His Blessings to your Majesty in so just a Cause.

May the same Almighty Providence, which hath, hitherto, preserved you, when you exposed your Person in defending the Liberties of Europe, still continue to protect and guard your Majesty in the Midst of all Dangers; which is the hearty and most fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Sacred Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and ever loyal Subjects.

*Island of Jersey, the 24th
Day of April, 1756.*

The following Address of the Bailiff, Approved Men and Burgeses of the Borough of Andevor, in the County of Southampton, has been presented to His Majesty by Colonel Griffin, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Fitzwilliams, one of the Lords of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Approved Men and Burgeses of your Majesty's Ancient Borough of Andevor, in the County of Southampton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, truly sensible of the great Blessings we enjoy under your mild and auspicious Government, and animated with Indignation at the daring Attempt meditated by France against your Majesty's Kingdoms, beg Leave to express our entire Abhorrence of so desperate a Design, which we doubt not, by the Blessing of God on the prudent and vigorous Measures your Majesty has taken, will prove vain and ineffectual.

The seasonable Protection given by your Majesty to those valuable Possessions your American Colonies, treacherously and unjustly encroached upon by a perfidious Enemy, demands the grateful Acknowledgements of your People.

Your Majesty's most gracious Compliance to the Request of your Parliament, at this critical Time of publick Danger, in ordering over a large Body of your Electoral Troops, calls upon us to return our warmest and most unfeigned Thanks for this fresh Mark of your Majesty's paternal Tenderness for the Safety of this Realm.

We do with the utmost Sincerity assure your Majesty, that we will, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, be ready to defend your Royal

Royal Person and Illustrious House, and the Civil and Religious Rights of this Kingdom.

Given under our Common Seal, this First Day of May, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Six.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Watson, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Fitzwilliams, one of the Lords of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild assembled, beg Leave, on this interesting Occasion of a formidable Invasion threatened by France, to express, with the utmost Humility, our invariable Fidelity and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government.

'Tis with the warmest Resentment we reflect on this daring and insolent Attempt of our perfidious and inveterate Enemies; an Attempt which nothing can parallel but their Infringement of the most solemn Treaties, and the unexampled Insult offered to your Majesty's Royal Name and Character.

Your Majesty's paternal Care of your People, and Concern for their just Rights, has at all Times been most conspicuous: But the Wisdom and Vigour that your Majesty has shewn in opposing the Encroachments of France on your Majesty's American Colonies, and the Measures that your Majesty has since taken to secure these Kingdoms against their desperate Attempts to invade us, call in a particular Manner for the grateful Acknowledgements of all your faithful Subjects.

Animated with these Sentiments, there is nothing we hold too dear to sacrifice in Defence of your Majesty's Dominions and just Rights, and of our Religious and Civil Liberties inseparably connected with them.

The Justice of our Cause, your Majesty's Wisdom and Prudence, and the Protection of the Almighty, we humbly presume will speedily convince your Majesty's Enemies; how fruitless their Attempts must be against a Nation, where the Prince and People are firmly united in supporting their mutual Interests, and will assure to us, and to our latest Posterity, the Peace, Prosperity, and Happiness of these Kingdoms, under a Line of Successors in your Royal House.

In Testimony whereof, we have hereunto affixed the Common Seal of this Borough, the 24th Day of April, 1756.

The following Address of the Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the Port of Whitehaven, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir James Lowther, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Cumberland, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Fitzwilliams, one of the Lords of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Merchants and principal Inhabitants of the Port of Whitehaven.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Merchants and principal Inhabitants of the Port of Whitehaven, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with the warmest Sentiments of Duty and Loyalty, at this important Juncture, when the lawless Ambition of a neighbouring State hath prompted her to make the most formidable Preparation for invading these Kingdoms, and depriving us of all the invaluable Blessings we enjoy, under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government. While your Majesty's paternal Care is displayed in protecting the Commerce, and asserting the Rights of your People, with a Firmness and Resolution becoming the Dignity of your Crown, and yet without the least Encroachment upon the Rights and Properties of any foreign State, it cannot but excite a just Indignation in the Breast of every Englishman, to find the restless Enemy of the Liberties of Europe retaining the most hostile Disposition, and striving to translate into these flourishing Kingdoms all the Calamities of a most destructive War.

Permit us therefore, most Gracious Sovereign, with Hearts full of Gratitude for the Protection of our Religion, Laws and Commerce, to make a Tender of our most faithful Services, in Defence of your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, with our most fervent Prayers to Almighty God for His Blessing upon your Arms and Councils, against all Invaders of your Crown and Dignity.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of Glasgow, has been presented to His Majesty by Lieutenant General Campbell, Groom of the Bed Chamber: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of Glasgow.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Glasgow, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave, in the most submissive, missive, dutiful Manner, to express our sincere unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person, Family and Government, and humbly to offer our best Efforts and Services in Defence of your Majesty's Safety and the Quiet of your Dominions, against which the insolent Enemy has dared to publish repeated Threatnings. Our Example at this critical Conjunction has not been wanting, and we reckon it our Duty and Honour, in these alarming Times of Danger, to declare our Readiness to hazard our Lives and Fortunes for the Support and Establishment of your Majesty's Throne, as well as to repel the hostile Attempts of these perfidious Disturbers of Great Britain.

That Almighty God may give Success and Victory to your Majesty's Fleets and Arms, and long preserve your Majesty's inestimable and precious Life, to be the Guardian of your People, is the fervent Supplication and Prayer of your Majesty's faithful and loyal City of Glasgow.

Glasgow, Signed in Presence and by April 7, 1756. Appointment,
George Murdoch, Provost.

The following Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr, has been presented to His Majesty by Lieutenant General Campbell, Groom of the Bed Chamber: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr, now assembled, beg Leave, in these Times of publick Danger, in the most humble Manner, to express our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our strong Abhorrence of the Designs of an insolent and perfidious Enemy, who, after having made unjust Attempts upon your Majesty's Colonies Abroad, hath also dared, in a publick Manner, to threaten an Invasion of the British Dominions, and to disturb the Peace of your Majesty's auspicious and happy Government at Home.

Inspired by the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty to your Sacred Majesty, we reckon it our Duty and Honour to preserve, to the utmost of our Power, among the People committed to our Care, the same Sentiments of Loyalty, and to animate their Zeal in Defence of your Majesty's Authority and Government, with which, both we and they are deeply convinced our most valuable Interests and Liberties are inseparably connected.

That Almighty God, by whom Kings reign, may long preserve your Majesty's inestimable Life, direct your Councils, give His Blessing and Protection to your Fleets and Armies, and that the Crown of these Realms may, to the latest Posterity, remain in your Majesty's Royal Family, is, and shall be, the fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects,
The Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr.

Glasgow, Signed in our Name, and at April 15, 1756. our Appointment, by Robert Findlay, Moderator.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Robert Manners, and Richard Crowle, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Hyndford, one of the Lords of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Town of Kingston upon Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgesses of your Town of Kingston upon Hull, humbly beg Leave, at this Time, when your Majesty and your Kingdoms are threatened with an Invasion from France, to approach your Royal Presence to profess our Detestation and Resentment of so unjust and desperate a Design, and at the same Time to declare, with the greatest Gratitude, the high Sense we have of the Happiness and Prosperity we have enjoyed under your Majesty's just and prudent Administration, during the whole Course of your Reign; and our firm and unalterable Resolutions to contribute, to our utmost Power and Ability, to the Support of your Majesty's Person and Government, and the perpetuating the Succession of the Crown of these Kingdoms in your Royal Family, against all your Enemies.

May the Almighty grant that your Majesty's steady and wise Measures to oppose their unjustifiable Attempts upon these Kingdoms, and to bring them to make your Majesty ample Satisfaction for their Infringement of Treaties with you, may be crowned with Success, and be followed by a lasting Peace; and that your Majesty may Live many Years in Health and Glory to enjoy the Fruits of it, and the Love, Duty and Reverence of a happy People, made so by your Majesty's constant Goodness and Care for the Preservation of their Rights and Liberties.

Given under our Common Seal this Fourth Day of May, in the 29th Year of your glorious Reign.

The

The following Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town of Nottingham, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Howe, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Hyndford, one of the Lords of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town of Nottingham, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, encouraged by long Experience of your Royal Wisdom and Goodness, with liberal Freedom, and filial Reverence, approach your Majesty, the true Father of your Country, to express the Confidence we repose in your Wisdom and Vigilance, and tender you this Assurance of our Affection to your Royal Person, Family, and Government.

We recount, with Gratitude to God, the peculiar Happiness we have so long enjoyed under the auspicious Care of so wise a Prince, who, in the Space of more than Twenty Eight Years, has not attempted one Act of lawless Power, nor shewed the least Inclination to invade the legal Rights or Properties of his Subjects.

The Laws of your Kingdom, the prescribed Rule of your Subjects Duty, your Majesty has inviolably made the Measure of your Government, ever deigning to take Counsel of your Lords and Commons, in Parliament assembled.

The Security arising from such a Constitution and Government, under the wise Direction of your Royal Mind, has endeared your Majesty to your People, and animated them with that Spirit of Industry and Enterprize, which has adorned the Face of our Nation, and raised us to a superior Degree of National Happiness.

Your equal Regard to the Law of Nations, and Rights of Mankind, is well known to the whole World, being ever experienced by all your Majesty's Allies and Neighbours.

The Reverse of all this is the known Character of that arbitrary and lawless Monarch, that has unjustly invaded your Colonies, and, enraged by Disappointment, is preparing to invade this peaceful and happy Island.

We trust therefore, that every Nation must favour and wish well to your righteous Cause, whilst your faithless Enemy is deserted by all, as the Plague and Scourge of Europe, inheriting the lawless and ambitious Spirit of his Predecessors, to which Millions of Lives have been already sacrificed.

His own oppress'd Parliament and People are Witnesses against him, as well as his Neighbours, that he knows no Law as the Measure of his Government.

In these interesting Circumstances your Majesty may depend upon the Loyalty and Aid of your own Subjects. The Duty we owe to God, to your Majesty, our Country, Ourselves, and Families, all conspire to animate every British Heart with Resolution, to render us fearless of Danger, and regardless of any necessary Charge, in Defence of what is dearer to Ourselves and Posterity than Life itself.

May the God of Heaven, on whose Providence we rest our Hopes, protect your Majesty's Person, preserve your Health, and prolong your invaluable Life—direct all your Counsels—defend your Forces—and prosper your Enterprizes—And may the Blessings and Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty, be transmitted safe to our latest Posterity, under the Guardianship of your Descendants, inheriting your Royal Virtues; and imitating that Plan of wise and legal Government, which your Majesty has set before them and all the World.

Given under our Common Seal, the Fifth Day of May, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Six.
