

the Fruits of it, which we hope will be continued in your Royal and Illustrious Progeny to the latest Ages.

Given under our Common Seal the 25th Day of May, 1756.

Naples, April 27. Their Majesties and the Royal Family are now at Portici, where they propose staying till the Beginning of July, when they will go to Caferta for the Remainder of the Summer. Advice having been received here, that a contagious Distemper is broke out at Algiers, the King has caused an Ordinance to be published, by which all Ships coming from thence, or any other Port on the Coast of Africa, are obliged to perform an exact Quarantine.

Leghorn, May 3. For five or six Weeks past a Kind of malignant Fever has raged in this City, which has carried off a great Number of Persons.

Rome, May 8. The Pope having determined to make the Port d'Anzio more commodious for the Reception of Vessels, a sufficient Number of Slaves out of the Gallies, together with the necessary Materials and Stores, have been ordered thither from Civita Vecchia, under the Escort of the Pope's Frigate St. Paul. On the 5th Instant M. Corsini set out for Liebn to carry the Cap to the new promoted Cardinal. The necessary Dispositions are making for the Pope's Journey to Castle Gandolfo, as usual at this Season.

Florence, May 15. On the 12th Instant a Battalion of the Tuscan Regiment in Garrison here marched to Leghorne, and was replaced the same Day by the second Battalion of the said Regiment. On the 13th, being the Empress's Birth-Day, the same was celebrated as usual; Prior Antinori, Member of the Regency, and Secretary at War, was appointed to receive the Compliments on that Occasion in the Morning, and in the Evening Count Richécourt gave a Ball at one of the Emperor's Country Seats near the City, to which he is removed for the Summer.

Hague, May 20. The States General having appointed M. Mauritius to replace M. Buys as Minister from this Republick to the Circle of Lower Saxony, he has taken the usual Oaths to qualify himself for that Employment, and is preparing to set out for his Post at Hambourg. Next Saturday is appointed for the Review of the Regiment of Swiss Guards. 'Tis said her Royal Highness the Princess Governante will set out towards the End of next Week, with the young Prince Stadtholder and the Princess Caroline his Sister, for Dieren, where she proposes to stay some Time.

Brussels, May 25. Our Advices from France, for this Week past, contain no farther Particulars of the Duke of Richelieu's Proceedings in the Island of Minorca. We are informed from the Frontiers of France, that several more Regiments are now upon their March from Lorraine, towards Normandy and Brittany; and that they are soon to be followed by all the Regiments that can be spared from the Garrisons in French Flanders. The Militia, which is now assembled and exercising all over the Country, is ordered to replace them every where.

IN June 1755, I was seized in Jamaica with a Bilious Fever, a Disorder very common in that Island, and in a few Hours was delirious; they bled me and gave me a Vommit, but my Fever continuing very High, I took Dr. James's Powder, (that is sold at Mr. Newbery's in St. Paul's Church-Yard) one Dose of which vomited and purged me pretty much, and then sweat me profusely, after which I slept some Hours; and the Fever entirely left me. I thought it was prudent however to take a Dose or two of Bark, which I did, and soon recover'd my Strength. My Carpenter, James Casburn, was in our Passage Home taken with a Fever, which threw him into strong Convulsions, so that his Arms, Legs and Body, were contracted or distorted to a very great Degree, and every one in the Ship gave him over for lost; but upon taking two Doses of the Powders, which worked him pretty much, he perfectly recovered.
