Naples, May 20.

TIS reported here, that an Augmentation is shortly to be made to our Forces by Sea and Land, and that a Tax will be laid on the Clergy to answer the Expences thereof.

Rome, May 29. A few Days ago a Detachment of 50 Soldiers, out of the Corsican Regiment in Garrison in this City, was sent to Ancona, to assist at the additional Works that are making to render that Port more commodious. The Pope's Frigate, St. Peter, returned to Civita Vecchia from Leghorne, after having provided herself with Anchors, and other necessary Stores. Both that and the Frigate St. Paul are ordered to be disarmed and laid up during the Summer, in Lieu of which, the Pope's Gallies are fitting out, as Vessels more proper during this Season, to cruize on the Roman Coast against the Barbary Corsairs. The Abbe Count Ratta, the late Auditor of the Nunciature in Portugal, who a few Days ago returned here from thence, has obtained of the Pope the Title of one of his Domestick Prelates, with an annual Pension, and an Apartment at the Quirinal, in Consideration of the Losses he sustained in the late Earthquake at Lisbon. On the 22d Instant the Commandeur d'Andreda, the Portuguese Minister at this Court, having received a few Days ago, by a Courier, his Letters of Revocation, presented M. d'Almada to the Pope as his Successor. On the 24th the French Ambassador received an extraordinary Courier from his Court, whereupon, on the 25th, he had an Audience of the Pope. On the 28th the Pope, attended by his Retinue and Guards, set out for Castle Candolfo, where he proposes to pass a Month as usual at this Season; he was complimented at a Place called Torre di Mezza Via by Count Marefcotti; and at the Trattocchie,

(a Seat belonging to the Constable Colonna) was by him received, and his whole Retinue entertained with Refreshments.

Florence, June 5. One of the Emperor's Ships of War, and a small armed Vessel, having been fitted out at Porto Ferrajo, are ordered to put to Sea to cruize on the Coast of Tuscany against the Algerines. The Magistrate of Health, on Notice that the Epidemical Fever are ceased in Corfica, have sent Orders to Leghorne and Porto Ferrajo to admit, as usual, all Vessels from that Island and Genoa. Preparations are making at a House belonging to the Emperor, for the Reception of an Ambassador from the Bey of Tripoli, who is performing Quarantine at Leghorne, in order to proceed by Land to the Court of Vienna.

Berlin, June 5. Orders having been lately sent to all the Regiments, as well Horse as Foot, that are quartered in Pomerania, and in the Neighbourhood of that Province, to assemble near Stettin, the King sets out Tomorrow, accompanied by several Princes and General Officers, in order to review those Regiments.

Hamburg, June 11. Yesterday in the Afternoon, the King of Denmark passed through Hamburg from Altona, and went to a Country House belonging to a very considerable Banker of this City, the Sieur Stenglin, at a small Distance from the Gates, where the Danish Envoy here, M. Johann, had the Honour to present a Collation to the King his Master. This Morning, at Nine o'Clock, his Majesty set out from Altona, on his Return to Copenhagen, and hopes to reach his Capital on the 15th. The Prussian Minister at the Court of Denmark, M. d'Hæfeler, who accompanied his Majesty to Altona, proposes to set out from hence for Berlin in a Day or two.
