Published by Authority.

From Saturday December 11, to Tuesday December 14, 1756.

Naples, November 9:

LAST Wednesday the Court returned from Portici to this City; and the next Day, being his Majesty's Name Day, there was a splendid Appearance of the Nobility at Court, to compliment their Majesties on that Occasion. In the Evening the Ladies were admitted to kiss the Queen's Hand; which Ceremony being over, the King and Queen, with the rest of the Royal Family, went to see the Representation of a new Opera. Two of the King's Gallies are returned into this Port, after a Cruise of several Months, without having met with any Corsairs.

Madrid, Nov. 22. This Evening their Catholick Majesties returned in good Health to their Palace of Buen Retiro, from the Escorial, where, on the 19th Instant, they were complimented by the Foreign Ministers and other Persons of Distinction, on its being the Queen Dowager's Festival, the Court being in great Splendor, as usual on such Occasions.

Florence, Nov. 23. On the 6th Instant, the Senator Antinori, with Engineers and other Attendants, returned here from Pisa, without having been able to regulate any Thing with the Lucchese Commissaries, relating to the Disputes which have so long subsisted with that Republick, in Regard to the Lake of Bientina, and the Channel of Serezza.

Brussels, Dec. 10. Our last Letters from France advise us, that on the 24th of last Month a Squadron sailed from Brest, consisting of the following Ships, viz. l'Intrepide of 74 Guns, l'Opiniatre of 64, and le St. Michel of 60; besides three Frigates, l'Amethyste and la Licorne of 30 Guns each, and la Calypso of 16 Guns.

Dublin, December 2.

Tuesday last being the Anniversary of her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales's Birthday, the Great Guns were fired at His Majesty's Park the Phoenix, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks. At Noon there was a splendid Appearance of the Nobility, and other Persons of Distinction, to compliment the Lords Justices upon this Occasion. In the Evening there was a Play given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies, and the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy.

Whitehall, December 11, 1756.

Whereas it has been represented to the King, that on Sunday the 10th Day of October last, as the Bulton Tender was then lying in Hoyleake-Road within the Port of Liverpoole, and having on Board a great Number of Seamen for his Majesty's Service, a sudden Mutiny was raised on Board the said Tender by four of the said Seamen, viz. Henry Gillam, Irwin Jackson, Henry Taylor, and William Ellifon, who killed one James Molyson, the Mate of the said Tender, and also encouraged many of the said Seamen to desert, and run away from His Majesty's Service; as they accordingly did to the Number of Thirty Eight; His Majesty, for the apprehending and bringing to Justice the abovenamed Persons, concerned in the said Mutiny, and in the Murder of the said Molyson, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any of the Seamen that deserted as aforesaid, who shall discover, and cause the said Henry Gillam, Irwin Jackson, Henry Taylor, and William Ellifon, or any of them, to be apprehended, so as he, or they, may be brought to Justice.

W. PITT.

And as a farther Encouragement, my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby promise, that any Person, or Persons, who shall apprehend the said Henry Gillam, Irwin Jackson, Henry Taylor, and William Ellifon, or any, or either of them, so as they, or he, be convicted of the said Murder, shall be entitled to a Reward of Fifty Pounds for each of the Offenders who shall be convicted thereof; to be paid immediately after such respective Conviction or Convictions.

J. Cleveland.

General Post-Office, December 12, 1756.

Whereas the Post-Boy, cartying the Worcester Mail, from hence to Southall, was, this Morning, between the Hours of Four and Five of the Clock, attacked and robbed on the Road near Shepherds Bush, by a Foot Pad, who laid hold of the Bridle of the Post-Boy's Horse, and bid him dismount, and afterwards led the said Horse into a Lane near the great Road, and from thence into a Field adjoining, and there near to a Hay Rick took off the Mail from the Horse, opened it, and afterwards the Letters contained in the following Bags, viz. Campden, Chipping-Norton, Evertham, Burford, Whitney, Woodstock, Oxford, Ludlow, Bromyard, Worcester, Thame, Southall, Gerrard's Cross, Uxbridge, High Wickham, and Beaconsfield.

N. B. The following Bags in the said Mail were unopened, viz. Shipton, Enston, and Tenbury; and the said Foot Pad, after detaining the Post-Boy upwards of two Hours, mounted the said Post-Boy's Horse, and rode off with the same towards Aton.

The Man who committed this Robbery is described to be a middle sized Man, of a thin Visage, and wore his Hat slapp'd, and had on a blue Surtout Coat with Metal Buttons, and wore either his own Hair or a Wig tied behind.

The Horse the Post-Boy rode, and which the Foot Pad carried off, is a black one, with some white on the near

near Leg behind, about fourteen Hands and an half high, and a little lame with the Spring Halt.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, will be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Person or Persons, whether an Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby the Person, who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party, be entitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

Victualling Office, December 10, 1756.

The Commissioners for Victualling his Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 22d Instant, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to receive Proposals from such Persons as are inclinable to furnish Oxen and Hogs for Sea Store, at the Ports of London, Portsmouth, Plymouth and Dover.

East India House, November 24, 1756.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give Notice,

That a Quarterly General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Leadenhall-street, on Wednesday the 15th Day of December next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon.

That the Transfer Books of the said Company's Stock will be shut on Thursday the 16th Day of said December, at Two o'Clock, and opened again on Thursday the 13th Day of January next.

That the Dividend Warrants on the said Stock, due the 5th Day of January next, will be ready to be delivered on Monday the 7th Day of February following.

Royal Exchange Assurance Office, Dec. 1, 1756.

The Court of Directors of the Royal Exchange Assurance Company do hereby give Notice, That their Transfer Books will be shut on Thursday the 16th Instant to Thursday the 13th of January next: And that the Annual General Court of the said Company, appointed by their Charter, will be held at their Office on the Royal Exchange on Wednesday the 29th of December Instant, at Eleven in the Forenoon; and that a Dividend will be considered of at the said Court.

This Day is published,

Price Six-pence,

AN Easy, Short, and Certain Method of Treating Persons bit by MAD ANIMALS.

By Claude du Choiseul, of the Society of Jesus, Apothecary to the Mission of Pondicherry in the East Indies. Translated from the French by a Physician.

Printed for W. Johnston in St. Paul's Church Yard.

N. B. This Pamphlet was so highly approved by the Physicians in Paris; as a Sovereign Remedy for the Cure of Persons bit by Mad Dogs, that it was ordered to be published by Authority, for the more speedy getting it into the Hands of Country Surgeons and Apothecaries.

TO be sold, pursuant to two several Decrees of the High Court of Chancery, before William Spicer, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, The Freehold Manor of Fling in the County of Norfolk; and also a Freehold Farm in Fling aforesaid, called the Hall Farm, lett to Mr. Peter Dent at 270l. per Annum, or thereabouts; late the Estates of Thomas Seaman, Esq; deceased. Particulars whereof may be had at the said Master's Chambers in Lincoln's Inn, London.

The Case of Daniel Taylor, Steward on Board the Ship Pelling, Richard Sowarfall, Commander.

Daniel Taylor was taken ill of a Fever about the 18th Day of September last at Plymouth, where the Captain put in to wait Convey for London; the Captain ordered Mr. Phillips, an eminent Apothecary there to attend him, who administered the usual Remedies in Fevers to the utmost of his Knowledge, but the Patient's Fever still grew worse, and in about two Weeks Time was quite Delirious, and continued so about a Week, till the Captain arrived at his Moorings off Iron Gate; two or three Days after this an Apothecary in East Smithfield went on Board to pay his Respects to the Captain, and on hearing a Man in the Cabin groan, and behave like a Lunatic, begg'd to see him, and accordingly found him almost expiring, with a Pulse extremely quick, low and fluttering, his Eyes almost fix'd in his Head, and in short had all the Symptoms of an approaching Death; the Captain desired his Friend to order him any Thing he thought might relieve him; accordingly he sent him a whole Paper of Dr. James's Fever Powder, made into a Bolus with Conserve of Hips, which in an Hour's Time gave him three or four gentle Pukes, and after that a Scool, and then threw him into a fine breathing Sweat, during which Operations the Patient was supported by warm Herb Tea, drank plentifully; in about six Hours his Senses perfectly return'd, so as to know the Ship's Crew distinctly, his Fever quite abated, his Pulse grew strong, and every Day after grew better and better, so that in a Week's Time he assisted at his Business, and is at present a Board the said Ship as Steward, being grown quite fat and healthy, to the great Surprise of the whole Ship's Company. Any Person may be satisfied of the Truth of this Case by applying to Captain S. Marshall, at the Jamaica Coffee House, or on Board the said Ship off Iron Gate.

DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of HIS MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisy, Quinics, acute Rheumatism, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasiness proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, at 2s. 6d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6d.

TO be sold, together or in Parcels, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, before Richard Edwards, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's Inn in Chancery Lane, London, (subject to the Dower of the Widow Bell) A Messuage or Tenement and Farm called Conscience Fields, in the Parish of West-aver in the County of Bucks; and about 46 Acres of Arable and Meadow Land; and also the Tythes of Corn, Grain, and Hay arising from the said Premises, lett together at the yearly Rent of 22 l. and about 40 Acres of Wood Land adjoining to the above Premises unlett. Particulars whereof may be had at the said Master's Chambers.
