AT the Court at Kensington, the 30th Day of June, 1757.

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This Day the most Reverend Father in God John Lord Archbishop of York was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to deliver the Custody of the Great Seal to Sir Robert Henley, Knight, who was thereupon, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council, and Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain, and accordingly took his Place at the Board.

His Majesty having been pleased to deliver the Custody of the Privy Seal to the Right Honourable Richard Earl Temple, the Oath of Keeper of the Privy Seal was this Day administered to him, and his Lordship took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable George Earl of Orford to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Norfolk, and of the City of Norwich and County of the same: And the Right Honourable Francis Seymour Conway Earl of Hertford, to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Warwick; their Lordships this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

Camp before Prague, June 20. Upon Notice received that the Army of Count Daun was daily increasing, and that it was actually 45000 strong (the Austrians said 65000) and advancing towards Kuttenuburgh and Czaflau, with an Intention to get between the Prince of Bevern's Corps and the King's Army which lay before Prague, on the other Side of the Moldau, the King of Prussia set out last Monday, day, the 13th, in the Morning, to take the Command of that Corps. His Majesty was attended in this March by three Battalions of Infantry, and one Regiment of Cuirassiers, and was joined on the Road by a Detachment which had been employed to guard the Sasawa, consisting of five Battalions and ten Squadrons. The next Day Prince Maurice of Anhalt Dessau followed with six Battalions and one Regiment of Cuirassiers. These Reinforcements joined the Prince of Bevern last Thursday at Milkowitz near Kaurzim, six Miles from Prague. After their Junction, the whole Force of the Prussian Army consisted of 32 Battalions and 111 Squadrons, Horse, Dragoons, and Hussars, making, by the nearest Computation, 32000 Men.

On Saturday the 18th, about Three in the Afternoon, the Prussian Army attacked the Austrians near Kaurzim. The Action was very bloody, and lasted till Night; but the Superiority of Numbers at length prevailed, and the Prussians drew off. The King of Prussia immediately resolved to raise the Blockade of Prague, which accordingly will be executed this Morning, and the Army will retire towards Leitmeritz.

The Particulars of this unsuccessful Action near Kaurzim are, That the Prussian Infantry attacked with great Bravery and Intrepidity, drove the Austrians from two Hauteurs, which were defended with Cannon, and afterwards attacked the third Hauteur; but not being supported by their Cavalry, they were flanked by the Austrian Cavalry, and put into Disorder, and suffered greatly from the Cartridge Shot of the Cannon. The Prussian Army remained that Night upon or near the Field of Battle, and Yesterday retired towards Nimburg upon the Elbe.

The Austrian Army was most advantageously posted, and covered by a very numerous Artillery, placed upon the high Grounds between Gentitz and St. John the Baptist. We have as yet no Account of the exact Number of their Troops, nor of the Loss they have sustained in this Action.

The King of Prussia commanded the Army, and exposed his Person to the greatest Dangers. He returned last Night to the Camp beyond the Moldau, and will march this Morning with the Army that lay on that Side the River; and the Army on this Side is going to decamp.

Hague, June 28. This Morning Baron Reischach, the Imperial Minister here, received Letters from Vienna, of the 20th Instant, with an Account of a Battle fought the 18th Instant, near Kaurzim in Bohemia. According to this Account, the Battle began at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, and lasted till Eight at Night, when the Prussians retired, and left the Austrians Masters of the Field of Battle, of 24 Standards and Colours, and about 30 Pieces of Cannon of different Calibres: That the Battle was very obstinate, as the Troops were greatly animated against each other: That the Prussians had attacked them seven Times without Success, and, even after their Army had been routed, his Prussian Majesty had made an Effort with his Cavalry on one of their Wings, but had been repulsed; after which they had retreated; though the Austrians were even then uncertain whether the Prussians might not collect their Force and attack them again. Count Daun had been slightly wounded in two Places, and had a Horse killed under him. Several other Generals had been wounded. Two Prussian Generals, Treskow and Pannewitz, taken Prisoners, and a Report of Prince Maurice of Dessau being killed.

Brussels, June 28. The last Letters from Marshal d'Estrees's Army are of the 24th, but mention nothing of any Consequence.

Edward, the two senior Knights Companions, who buckled it on, the Chancellor reading the Admonition: Then Garter presented the Ribbon and George, and his Lordship kneeling down, His Majesty put it over his Left Shoulder, assisted by their Royal Highnesses; the Chancellor in the mean Time pronouncing the Admonition; and his Lordship having kissed the Sovereign's Hand, and severally saluted the Knights Companions, withdrew.

A Procession was then made back in the same Order, the Chancellor going immediately before the Sovereign.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurifies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6 d.

PROPOSALS For Printing by SUBSCRIPTION, THE RESIDUAL ANALYSIS,

A New BRANCH of the ALGEBRAIC ART,

Of very Extensive Use,

Both in PURE MATHEMATICS and NATURAL PHILOSOPHY.

By JOHN LANDEN, Author of Mathematical Lucubrations.

This Analysis (which respects not the Generation of Quantities but their Properties) is, in Geometrical and Physical Enquiries, not less, if not more, useful than the best Method of Computation hitherto published; and, being founded on the proper Principles of Algebra, without borrowing any foreign one from the Doctrine of Motion, or considering Quantities as composed of infinitely small Particles, is, it is presumed, more perspicuous than either Sir Isaac Newton's Method of Fluxions or Mr. Leibnitz's Differential Calculus.

CONDITIONS.

- I. The Usefulness of this Analysis will be exemplified in a Variety of curious Enquiries; and the Work (with the Subscribers Names prefixed) shall be very elegantly printed, on Royal and Demy Paper, in one Volume Quarto, containing about 30 Sheets, besides several Copper Plates.
- II. The Price to Subscribers will be Fifteen Shillings for the Royal, and Ten Shillings for the Demy Impression; one Half of which to be paid at the Time of Subscribing, and the other on the Delivery of the Book in Sheets.

Subscriptions are taken in by J. Nourse, in London; J. Fletcher, D. Prince, and S. Parker, in Oxford; W. Thurlbourn, and T. Merrill, in Cambridge; G. Hamilton, and J. Balfour, in Edinburgh; G. and A. Ewing, in Dublin.
