AT the Court at Kensington, the 8th Day of June, 1757,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Tenth of May last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, is near expiring: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Thirteenth Day of July next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January last: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Thirteenth Day of July next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 30th Day of June, 1757.

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This Day the most Reverend Father in God John Lord Archbishop of York was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to deliver the Custody of the Great Seal to Sir Robert Henley, Knight, who was thereupon, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council, and Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain, and accordingly took his Place at the Board.

His Majesty having been pleased to deliver the Custody of the Privy Seal to the Right Honourable Richard Earl Temple, the Oath of Keeper of the Privy Seal was this Day administered to him, and his Lordship took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable George Earl of Orford to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Norfolk, and of the City of Norwich and County of the same: And the Right Honourable Francis Seymour Conway Earl of Hertford, to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Warwick; their Lordships this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

Camp before Prague, June 20. Upon Notice received that the Army of Count Daun was daily increasing, and that it was actually 45000 strong (the Austrians said 65000) and advancing towards Kuttenuburgh and Czaflau, with an Intention to get between the Prince of Bevern's Corps and the King's Army which lay before Prague, on the other Side of the Moldau, the King of Prussia set out last Monday,
