Whitehall, December 30, 1757.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That an anonymous Letter, directed, "To Mr. Francis Sheppard, at the Great House at Alhet, near Pinner, in the County of Middlesex," was sent by the Post, and received by the said Mr. Sheppard, on Sunday the 11th Instant, threatening to set Fire to the Houses of Richard Lack, Ralph Weatherly, John Martin, William Douglas, and Mrs. Rogers, of the Parish of Ruislip; and to blow their Brains out; and, also, to cut the Throat of one of them; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice, the Author of the said destructive Threats, contained in the Letter aforesaid, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one, or more, of the Accomplices concerned in the Writing and Sending the said Letter, who shall discover the Author of the said destructive Threats, contained therein, so that he may be apprehended and convicted thereof; and, also, a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of the Author of the said Threats.

HOLDERNESSE.

And, as a further Encouragement, William Ashby, of the Parish of Breakspears in the County of Middlesex, Esq; does hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Guineas, to the Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid by him, upon the Conviction of the Offender.

Wm. Ashby.

War Office, October 25, 1757.

It is His Majesty's Pleasure, that all Ensigns, who have not already joined their Corps, should immediately repair to the Head Quarters of their respective Regiments, where their Commissions will be delivered out to them, after being examined, and approved of, by the Colonel, or other Commanding Officer. Such as do not make their Appearance, with all possible Expedition, will be superseded; and other Officers appointed in their Room. If any Ensign lately appointed should be ignorant where his Regiment is quartered, he will be informed thereof, on writing to Thomas Tyrwhitt, Esq; Deputy Secretary at War.

By His Majesty's Command,

BARRINGTON.

General Post Office, London, Dec. 24, 1757.

His Majesty's Post Master General, for the further Improvement of Correspondence, having been pleased to order the Bye Night Mails betwixt London and Birmingham, Wolverhampton, Shrewsbury, Shiffnall, Stafford, Stone, Namptwich, Chester, Northwich, Warrington, Liverpool, and Manchester, which at present pass through Evesham, Worcester and Bromsgrove, to be for the future conveyed directly through Shipston upon Stower, Stratford upon Avon, and Henly upon Arden; by which Means those Mails will arrive much earlier at Birmingham, and all the other Towns North thereof, than they do at present, and a Communication, by the Post, be opened from Shipston, Stratford, Henly, and Aulcester, to all Parts of Staffordshire, Cheshire, North Wales, and Lancashire, and to the Town of Kendall in Westmoreland.

And having also been pleased to order a new Branch to be erected betwixt Stratford upon Avon and Worcester, through Aulcester and Draitwich; by which Channel the Bye Night Mails will be conveyed to Worcester, and a Communication by the Post be opened from Shipston, Stratford, Henly, and Aulcester, to all Parts of Worcestershire, Gloucestershire, Bristol, Exeter, all Parts of Devonshire, Cornwall, Somersetshire, Shropshire, Herefordshire, Monmouthshire, and South Wales.

Public Notice is hereby given, that these Alterations will commence on the 5th Day of January next, at which Time the Bye Night Bags from London to Evesham and Bromsgrove will be discontinued.

And whereas many Letters have hitherto been collected and delivered in an illegal Manner, at the several Towns and Stages aforesaid, to the great Prejudice of the Revenue of the Post Office, Notice is hereby given, that all Carriers, Coachmen, Watermen, Wherry-men, Dispersers of Country News Papers, and all other Persons whatsoever, hereafter detected in the illegal collecting or delivering of Letters, will be prosecuted with the utmost Severity.

N. B. The Penalty is Five Pounds for every Letter collected or delivered contrary to Law, and One Hundred Pounds for every Week that Practice is continued.

By Command of the Post Master General,

George Shelvocke, Secretary.

Custom House, London, November 18, 1757.

Whereas on Tuesday the 8th Instant, in the Night, John Miles and William Dodd, Officers of the Customs, belonging to the Port of Arundell in Sussex, with four Dragoons, fell in with a large Gang of Smuglers, to the Number of Fifty or upwards, who were loading a great Number of Horses with Tea, and upon the Officers attempting to seize the same, a Signal was given by the Smuglers to a Cutter lying near the Shore, belonging to Selsey near Chichester, commanded by one Thomas Green, as represented by the Account transmitted to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, from which Cutter the said Tea was brought and landed, as there is great Reason to believe; And whereas thereupon a great Quantity of Fire Arms and other offensive Weapons were brought from the Cutter to the Smuglers on the Shore, with which they (the Smuglers) fired upon the Officers and Dragoons, and shot one Thomas Cole, a Dragoon of the Inshilling Regiment, commanded by the Honourable Lieutenant General Cholmondeley, who is since

force dead, and also dangerously wounded another Dragoon, and violently beat and abused one of the Officers of the Customs, and rescued from the Officers much the greatest Part of the said Tea. The Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, in order to bring the Offenders to Justice, and the more effectually to put a Stop to such illegal, violent, and outrageous Proceedings, do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall apprehend the said Offenders, or any or either of them, so that they may be dealt with according to Law, to be paid by the Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs, on Conviction of each of the said Offenders.

And any of the Persons who were concerned in the Rescue of the Goods aforesaid, who shall, within three Months after such Offence, discover two or more of their Accomplices, so as they be convicted thereof, will be intitled to a Reward of Fifty Pounds; and every such Person so discovering, will be clearly acquitted and discharged of his Offence aforesaid, by the Act of the 9th of His present Majesty.

By Order of the said Commissioners,
William Wood, Secretary.

Admiralty Office, November 18, 1757.

My Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having been credibly informed that divers evil minded Persons have of late (under Colour of Commissions granted by their Lordships, during this present War, to the Commanders of Privateers) frequently committed Acts of Piracy and other Outrages, by unlawfully plundering and forcibly taking away Goods, Effects, Stores and Ammunition, as well on board of Neutral Ships, as on board of other Ships belonging to His Majesty's Subjects, in Violation of the Laws of Nations, and of the particular Laws of this Kingdom; Their Lordships therefore, in order to detect and bring such Offenders to Justice, are pleased to promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, without any Deduction, unto or amongst such Person or Persons, as shall discover any other Person or Persons belonging to any British Privateer, or other British Vessel, who, during this present War with France, hath or have committed, or shall commit, any such Act or Acts of Piracy or Robbery as aforesaid, either on board any Neutral Ship or Ships, or any other Ship or Ships belonging to His Majesty's Subjects, so as such Offender or Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof; which Reward, with Respect to the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders of any Act or Act of Piracy or Robbery, committed on board any one such Neutral or other Ship as aforesaid, shall be paid by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, immediately after such respective Conviction.

And as a further Encouragement for the apprehending and prosecuting of the said Offender or Offenders, their Lordships do also hereby promise, that every Person who shall be intitled to the Whole, or any Part of such Reward of One Hundred Pounds as aforesaid, shall also, upon Request, have a Protection from being impressed into His Majesty's Sea Service, for the Space of one Year from the Date of such Protection.

And for the more speedy and effectual discovering and bringing such Offenders as aforesaid to Justice, His Majesty is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any of the Offenders, concerned in any of the Offences abovementioned, or their Accomplices, who shall first discover, and give Information against any other two or more of the said Offenders, so as they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
