AT the Court at St. James's, the 13th Day of January 1758,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Ninth of November last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, will expire upon the Fourteenth Day of this Instant January: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January 1757: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Twenty-eighth Day of February next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Blair.

Whitehall,

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, Dec. 1, 1757.
WHEREAS adhering to the King's Enemies, by giving to them Aid or Comfort, either within his Realm, or elsewhere, is High Treason, and the Concealment thereof is Misprision of Treason ;

And Whereas the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have received Information, That a Loan of Money for that Purpose is at this Time negotiating in this Kingdom ; Their Lordships do hereby promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person, by whose Discovery any Subject of His Majesty, or any Person residing within this Realm, shall be convicted of lending or advancing directly or indirectly, or of causing or procuring to be so lent or advanced, or of subscribing for, or contributing to, or of soliciting or contracting for or remitting, either in Coin or Bullion, or by Bill or Bills of Exchange, or by any other Means whatsoever, any Sum or Sums of Money, to or for the Use or Purpose aforesaid. The said Reward to be paid immediately on the Conviction of every such Offender, by the Solicitor of the Treasury, without Deduction, their Lordships having given Directions for the immediate Prosecution of such Offenders.

Whitehall, January 24, 1758.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that Ruth Salmon, a Servant to Farmer Carve, of Caldecot, in the County of Rutland, was, on the 10th of October last, in the Evening, found dead, in an Orchard belonging to her Master, with her Throat cut, and is supposed to have been murdered, by Persons unknown, the Coroner's Inquest, who sat on the Body, having brought in their Verdict wilful Murder, by such Persons: His Majesty for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons guilty of that heinous Crime, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Accomplices therein, (except the Person or Persons who actually committed the said Murder) who shall discover the Person or Persons that really committed the same, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLDERNESSE.

And as a further Encouragement, the Right Honourable the Earl of Exeter does hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to the Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid by his Lordship upon the Conviction of one or more of the Criminals.

Exeter.

War Office, January 12, 1758.

Whereas, notwithstanding the King's Orders that all Ensigns lately appointed, should immediately repair to the Head Quarters of their respective Regiments, several of the said Ensigns have not as yet appeared there; This is to give publick Notice, that every Ensign appointed before the 24th of December last, who shall not have joined his Regiment, or presented himself to be examined and approved of by the Colonel or Commanding Officer of his Regiment, on the 24th Day of February next, shall be superseded.

By His Majesty's Command,
BARRINGTON.

Custom House, London, November 18, 1757.

Whereas on Tuesday the 8th Instant, in the Night, John Miles and William Dodd, Officers of the Customs, belonging to the Port of Arundell in Sussex, with four Dragoons, fell in with a large Gang of Smuglers, to the Number of Fifty or upwards, who were loading a great Number of Horses with Tea, and upon the Officers attempting to seize the same, a Signal was given by the Smuglers to a Cutter lying near the Shore, belonging to Selvey near Chichester, commanded by one Thomas Green, as represented by the Account transmitted to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, from which Cutter the said Tea was brought and landed, as there is great Reason to believe; And whereas thereupon a great Quantity of Fire Arms and other offensive Weapons were brought from the Cutter to the Smuglers on the Shore, with which they (the Smuglers) fired upon the Officers and Dragoons, and shot one Thomas Cole, a Dragoon of the Inskilling Regiment, commanded by the Honourable Lieutenant General Cholmondeley, who is since dead, and also dangerously wounded another Dragoon, and violently beat and abused one of the Officers of the Customs, and rescued from the Officers much the greatest Part of the said Tea. The Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, in order to bring the Offenders to Justice, and the more effectually to put a Stop to such illegal, violent, and outrageous Proceedings, do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall apprehend the said Offenders, or any or either of them, so that they may be dealt with according to Law, to be paid by the Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs, on Conviction of each of the said Offenders.

And any of the Persons who were concerned in the Rescue of the Goods aforesaid, who shall, within three Months after such Offence, discover two or more of their Accomplices, so as they be convicted thereof, will be intitled to a Reward of Fifty Pounds; and every such Person so discovering, will be clearly acquitted and discharged of his Offence aforesaid, by the Act of the 9th of His present Majesty.

By Order of the said Commissioners,
William Wood, Secretary.

Navy Office, December 26, 1757.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that they will be ready to treat with such Persons as are desirous to contract for the Stores undermentioned, for His Majesty's Service, on the Days express'd against the same, at Eleven o'Clock in the Morning, precisely, that they may attend with their Proposals accordingly, viz.

Riga Masts,	_____	Wednesday Feb. 15.

Viſtualling-Office, January 20, 1758.

The Commissioners for Viſtualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 25th Instant, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they shall be ready to treat for Three Thousand Six Hundred Hogs, for Sea Store for the Port of London, to be killed in the Month of February next. The Carcasses of the Hogs not to weigh less than Eighty-four Pounds.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of His Majesty's Ship Tartar, who were actually on board at the taking the Duc d'Aiguillon French Privateer, that they will be paid their respective Shares of the said Privateer, and Head Money, on Friday the 27th of January Instant, on board the said Ship at Plymouth; and that the Shares not then demanded will be paid at the King's Head Tavern in Fenchurch Street, London, on the last Wednesday in every Month for three Years afterwards.

Notice

Notice is hereby given to the Officers, Seamen and Marines, that were actually on board His Majesty's Sloop Dispatch, and the Hawke Cutter, at taking the Bigot Privateer, that they, or their lawful Attorneys, will be paid their respective Shares of the net Produce of the Hull and Bounty of the said Privateer; as also for the Danger Privateer, taken in Company by the Centaur, Capt. Brown, with the Dispatch, on the said Sloop's Arrival at Sheerness: The Recalls for three Years, at Mr. Magnus's in Crown Court, Broad-street.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of His Majesty's Sloop Bonetta, who were on board at the taking the Favourite and Renard Privateers, that they will be paid their respective Shares for the Hull, &c. of the Favourite, and the Head Money for the Renard, on board the Bonetta at Plymouth on her Arrival there; and the Shares not then demanded will be paid the first Tuesday in every Month for three Years to come, at the Sign of the King of Sweden, near Wapping Dock, London.

N. B. The Payment for the Favourite was formerly advertised to be on board the Bonetta on her Arrival at Sheerness, but is now altered to Plymouth, she being expected first there.

AN Historical Dissertation concerning the Malignant Epidemical FEVER of 1756. With some Account of the Malignant Difeases prevailing since the Year 1752, in KIDDERMINSTER.

By JAMES JOHNSTONE, M. D.
Printed for W. Johnston in St. Paul's Church Yard.

The Case of Grove Gilles, Mate to Captain M'Gachen, of the Tryal Virginia Man.

MY Mate, Grove Gilles, was seized with a violent Fever, in my Passage from London to Virginia, and was delirious, and, as I thought, very dangerous. I gave him Half a Paper of Dr. James's Fever Powder, which I had at Mr. Newbery's, the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard; it operated by Stool and vomiting. Some Hours after I gave him another Dose, which work'd him much in the same Manner, and he slept for Eight or Ten Hours, and the Fever quite left him. The good Effects of this Powder I have seen in several other Cases on board my Ship during the Voyage.

William M'Gachen.

TO be peremptorily lett, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, before William Spicer, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, on Monday the 20th of February next, between Five and Six in the Afternoon, on a Lease or Leases, for a Term of 31 Years, Two Tenements in Berkhamsted St. Peter in Hertfordshire, late in the Occupation of Jos. Saunders; and a Parcel of Land in Great Gadden in Hertfordshire aforesaid, now in the Occupation of Daniel Aivils, being Part of the Estate belonging to the School founded by King Edward the 6th, in Berkhamsted aforesaid. Particulars whereof may be had at the said Master's Chambers in Lincoln's Inn.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, before Peter Pelford, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's Inn in Chancery-Lane, London, on Monday the 13th and Tuesday the 14th Days of March next, between Four and Six in the Afternoon, The Freehold, Copyhold, Customary, and Leasehold Estates of Edward Bullstrode, late of Fulham in the County of Middlesex, Esq; and also his Reversion and Reversionary Interest of and in divers other Estates, all lying in and near Evesham in the County of Worcester, and Campden in the County of Gloucester, in seventeen several Lots, viz. on Monday the 13th, Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9: And on Tuesday the 14th, Lots 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, and 17. Particulars whereof may be had at the said Master's Chambers.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, the Creditors of Philip Adams, late of the Parish of St. Giles without Cripplegate, London, Cutler, deceased, are to come before Peter Holford, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's Inn in Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their Debts, on or before the first Day of March next, or in Default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors of William Gray, formerly of Hanging Sword Court, Fleet Street, late of Half-Moon Court near Ludgate, Taylor, discharged out of His Majesty's Prison of the Fleet by virtue of the late Act of Parliament for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, are desired to meet on Tuesday the 7th Day of February next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, at Guildhall Coffee-house, London, in order for the Choice of one or more Assignee or Assignees of his Estate and Effects; pursuant to the said Act.

THE Creditors, who have proved their Debts under the Commission of Bankrupt awarded against Peter Flower, late of London, Merchant, are desired to meet at Tom's Coffee-house in Cornhill, London, on Tuesday the 31st of this Instant January, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, in order to empower the Assignees to commence and prosecute one or more Suit or Suits at Law or in Equity for Recovery of the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects; and to submit to Arbitration, compound, or otherwise compromise any Matters in Dispute relating thereto.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against Johnson Pasco, within the Liberty of Westminster, in the County of Middlesex, Malt Driller, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt, is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major Part of them, on the 27th of January Instant, on the 7th of February next, and on the 7th Day of March following, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon on each of the said Days, at Guildhall, London, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and at the second Sitting to chuse Assigners, and at the last Sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his Examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the Allowance of his Certificate. All Persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his Effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give Notice to Mr. Manlove, Attorney, in Hatton Garden, London.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against John Cowles, of the City of Gloucester, Grozier, Drover, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt, is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major Part of them, on the 2d, 3d, and 7th of March next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, on each of the said Days, at the House of John Rogers, situate in the said City of Gloucester, and called or known by the Name of the College Coffee House, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and at the second Sitting to chuse Assigners, and at the last Sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his Examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the Allowance of his Certificate. All Persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his Effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give Notice to Mr. Edmund Phillips, Attorney, in Gloucester aforesaid.

THE Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Richard Young and George Silveride, late of the Parish of St. Andrew Holbourn, in the County of Middlesex, Carpenters and Partners, and Joint Traders, intend to meet on the 18th Day of February next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, at Guildhall, London, in order to make a Dividend of the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors who have not already proved their Debts, are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Dividend.

THE Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Jonathan Collyer the Younger, of London, Merchant, intend to meet on the 15th Day of February next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, at Guildhall, London, in order to make a final Dividend of the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors, who have not already proved their Debts, are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Dividend.

WHEREAS the acting Commissioners in the Commission of Bankrupt awarded against James Gregory, of London, Merchant and Chapman, (Copartner with John Hide) have certified to the Right Honourable Sir Robert Henley, Knt. Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain, that the said James Gregory hath in all Things conformed himself according to the Directions of the several Acts of Parliament made concerning Bankrupts; This is to give Notice, that by Virtue of an Act passed in the fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, his Certificate will be allowed and confirmed as the said Act directs, unless Cause be shewn to the contrary on or before the 14th of February next.

In last Saturday's Gazette, in the first Line of the Advertisement for a Dividend of the Estate and Effects of Thomas Ranfon, for a Commission, read a renewed Commission.
