AT the Court at St. James's, the 13th Day of January 1758,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Ninth of November last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, will expire upon the Fourteenth Day of this Instant January: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January 1757: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Twenty-eighth Day of February next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Blair.

Hague, Jan. 24. We hear that Marshal Richelieu is recalled, and the Command of the French Army in Germany given to the Prince of Clermont. The Hamburgh Mail, which arrived this Evening, has brought the Confirmation of the French having possessed themselves of Bremen.

Whitehall, January 28.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint John Brettell, Esq; to be Secretary to the Stamp Duties, in the room of Wadham Wyndham, Esq;.

Admiralty Office, January 26.

Extract of a Letter from Capt. Elliot, of His Majesty's Ship the Hussar, to Mr. Cleveland, dated at Kinsale the 11th of January 1758.

Upon the 8th, in Latitude of 49 and a half, and about 45 Leagues to the Westward of the Lizard, I saw a French Privateer at Day-break within about two or three Gun-shot: I chased him till Three in the Evening before I could come up with him, when he brought too, and we engaged for an Hour and three Quarters before he struck, with eight Feet Water in his Hold, five Guns dismounted, 52 Men killed, 37 wounded, Main and Mizzen Masts gone, and the Foremast so much damaged, that it went away the next Morning. She is called the Vengeance belonging to St. Malo's, is pierced for 32 Guns, but has mounted only 24 Twelve and Nine Pounders, about 20 Swi-vels, and had 319 Men on the Rolle de l'Equipage.

I had six Men killed, and 15 wounded; the Lieutenant of Marines is the only Officer I have wounded. I have the Pleasure to acquaint their Lordships, that the Officers and Seamen, under my Command, behaved with the greatest Bravery.

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, Dec. 1, 1757.

WHEREAS adhering to the King's Enemies, by giving to them Aid or Comfort, either within his Realm, or elsewhere, is High Treason, and the Concealment thereof is Misprision of Treason;

And Whereas the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have received Information, That a Loan of Money for that Purpose is at this Time negotiating in this Kingdom; Their Lordships do hereby promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person, by whose Discovery any Subject of His Majesty, or any Person residing within this Realm, shall be convicted of lending or advancing directly or indirectly, or of causing or procuring to be so lent or advanced, or of subscribing for, or contributing to, or of soliciting or contracting for or remitting, either in Coin or Bullion, or by Bill or Bills of Exchange, or by any other Means whatsoever, any Sum or Sums of Money, to or for the Use or Purpose aforesaid. The said Reward to be paid immediately on the Conviction of every such Offender, by the Solicitor of the Treasury, without Deduction, their Lordships having given Directions for the immediate Prosecution of such Offenders.

Whitehall, January 24, 1758.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that Ruth Salmon, a Servant to Farmer Carve, of Caldecot, in the County of Rutland, was, on the 10th of October last, in the Evening, found dead, in an Orchard belonging to her Master, with her Throat cut, and is supposed to have been murdered, by Persons unknown, the Coroner's Inquest, who sat on the Body, having brought in their Verdict a wilful Murder, by such Persons: His Majesty for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons guilty of that heinous Crime, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Accessories therein, (except the Person or Persons who actually committed the said Murder) who shall discover the Person or Persons that really committed the same, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLDERNESSE.

And as a further Encouragement, the Right Honourable the Earl of Exeter does hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to the Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid by his Lordship upon the Conviction of one or more of the Criminals.

Exeter.

Whitehall, January 27, 1758.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that two threatening Letters have been sent to James Thornton, of Netherwritten, in the County of Northumberland, Esq; and received by him, viz. The First, from Durham, on the Eleventh of December last, threatening his Life; and the other, on the Seventh Instant, from Alnwick in Northumberland, threatening to burn Him, in his Bed, and all that he had, to Ashes, if He did not displace His Steward; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Author, or Authors, of the said two threatening Letters, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one concerned in writing or sending the same, or either of them, (except the Person, or Persons, who actually wrote both, or either of the said two threatening Letters) who shall discover the Person or Persons that actually wrote and sent the same, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLDERNESSE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said James Thornton, of Netherwritten in the County of Northumberland, berland, Esq; does, hereby, promise a Reward of One Hundred Guineas, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid, by Him, upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

James Thornton.

War Office, January 12, 1758.

Whereas, notwithstanding the King's Orders that all Ensigns lately appointed, should immediately repair to the Head Quarters of their respective Regiments, several of the said Ensigns have not as yet appeared there; This is to give publick Notice, that every Ensign appointed before the 24th of December last, who shall not have joined his Regiment, or presented himself to be examined and approved of by the Colonel or Commanding Officer of his Regiment, on the 24th Day of February next, shall be superseded.

By His Majesty's Command,
BARRINGTON.

Custom House, London, November 18, 1757.

Whereas on Tuesday the 8th Instant; in the Night, John Miles and William Dodd, Officers of the Customs, belonging to the Port of Arundell in Sussex, with four Dragoons, fell in with a large Gang of Smuglers, to the Number of Fifty or upwards, who were loading a great Number of Horses with Tea, and upon the Officers attempting to seize the same, a Signal was given by the Smuglers to a Cutter lying near the Shore, belonging to Selsey near Chichester, commanded by one Thomas Green, as represented by the Account transmitted to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, from which Cutter the said Tea was brought and landed, as there is great Reason to believe; And whereas thereupon a great Quantity of Fire Arms and other offensive Weapons were brought from the Cutter to the Smuglers on the Shore, with which they (the Smuglers) fired upon the Officers and Dragoons, and shot one Thomas Cole, a Dragoon of the Iniskilling Regiment, commanded by the Honourable Lieutenant General Cholmondeley, who is since dead, and also dangerously wounded another Dragoon, and violently beat and abused one of the Officers of the Customs, and refused from the Officers much the greatest Part of the said Tea. The Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, in order to bring the Offenders to Justice, and the more effectually to put a Stop to such illegal, violent, and outrageous Proceedings, do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall apprehend the said Offenders, or any or either of them, so that they may be dealt with according to Law, to be paid by the Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs, on Conviction of each of the said Offenders.

And any of the Persons who were concerned in the Rescue of the Goods aforesaid, who shall, within three Months after such Offence, discover two or more of their Accomplices, so as they be convicted thereof, will be intitled to a Reward of Fifty Pounds; and every such Person so discovering, will be clearly acquitted and discharged of his Offence aforesaid, by the Act of the 9th of His present Majesty.

By Order of the said Commissioners,
William Wood, Secretary.

Navy Office, December 26, 1757.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that they will be ready to treat with such Persons as are desirous to contract for the Stores undermentioned, for His Majesty's Service, on the Days express'd against the same, at Eleven o'Clock in the Morning, precisely, that they may attend with their Proposals accordingly, viz.

By the KING's Patent,

HIS MAJESTY having been graciously pleased to grant his Royal Letters Patent, bearing Date at Westminster the 17th Day of October 1751, in the 25th Year of his Majesty's most Excellent Majesty King George the Third, unto Richard Rock, of the Parish of St. Bridget, otherwise Bride's, London, Licentiate in Medicine, for his New Compound Medicine, or Anti-Veneral Cathartick Electuary, for the true Cure of fresh Veneral Injuries, and all the lurking Relicks or Remains of old ones, which he has brought to a surprizing Degree of Perfection in the Cure of the several Stages of the Veneral Distemper, from the slightest Infection to the most inveterate Degree thereof, without breaking or impairing the Constitution, enervating the human System, or leaving any Foulness or Weakness behind: This is therefore to acquaint the Publick, for whose Use and Benefit the said Letters Patent were principally obtained, that the said most admirable Electuary is sold by him at the Golden Head and Key, Bell Savage Inn Gateway, Ludgate-Hill, London, at only 6s. and a Book of plain Instructions (by the Help of which every one may be his own Physician) given with each Pot: Where Advice is to be had, and all Debilities, Obstructions of the urinary Passages, and Gleet, are absolutely cured.

The said Electuary is also sold by Mrs. Adams, at her Printing Office in West Chester; Mr. Brown, Bookseller, in Christmas Street, Bristol; and at Mr. Bowen's, the South End of the Royal Exchange.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, before William Spicer, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, Two Freehold Estates called Benvil and Elmestones, situate in the Parish of Corscomb in the County of Dorset, and lett together to Robert Notley at 50 l. per Ann. late the Estates of Winefrid Warham, Spinster, deceased. Particulars whereof may be had at the said Master's Chambers in Lincoln's Inn, London.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, before Peter Holford, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's Inn in Chancery Lane, London, The Mill, and several Estates, Part of or belonging to the Manor of Trethewell, in the Parish of St. Evall in the County of Cornwall, now in Mortgage to Mrs. Rachael Hawkins, containing by Estimation 316 Acres of Land, and lett at 187 l. per Annum, or thereabouts, subject to several small Outgoings of 1 l. 8 s. 4 d. per Annum. Particulars whereof may be had at the said Master's Chambers.

Pursuant to an Order made by the Right Honourable Sir Robert Henley, Knt. Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain, for Enlarging the Time for Edward Heylyn, of Cornhill, London, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, a Bankrupt, to make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects, for Twenty-one Days, to be computed from the 28th of this Instant January; This is to give Notice, that the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major Part of them, will meet on the 18th of February next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, at Guildhall, London; when and where the said Bankrupt is required to surrender himself, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects, and finish his Examination, and the Creditors who have not already proved their Debts, may then and there come and prove the same, and assent to or dissent from the Allowance of his Certificate.

Whereas an Assignment of the Estate of John Cargill, late of Lombard Street, London, Surgeons Instrument Maker, discharged out of the Poultry Compten under the Insolvent Debtors Act of the 21st of His Majesty's Reign, was made to Mr. James Ferguson, of Wapping New Stairs, Middlesex, Shoemaker, one of his Creditors, in Pursuance of the said Act, he gives this Notice to all the other Creditors, that he intends to make a Dividend of a small Sum he has received, (being all that is expected) among such as shall, within one Month from this Publication, produce to him, or Mr. Jefferson, Attorney, at Coach-makers Hall, London, Affidavits proving their respective Debts as the said Act prescribes.

THE Commissioners named and authorized in and by a renewed Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Pickering, of the Parish of St. Clement Danes, in the Liberty of Westminster and County of Middlesex, Taylor and Chapman, intend to meet (pursuant to an Order made by the Right Hon^{ble} the Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain) on the 7th Day of February next, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, at Guildhall, London, in order to choose an Assignee or Assignees of the Estate and Effects of the said Bankrupt.

N. B. It is desired that all the Creditors, who formerly proved their Debts, will come and make fresh Proof of the same, the former Commission, Assignment, and all the Proceedings being destroyed or lost.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against Alexander Gordon, late of London, Merchant, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects, on Wednesday the 1st of February next, at Five in the Afternoon, at the Salutation Tavern in Nicholas Lane, Lombard Street, on special Affairs.

Whereas a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against Joseph Weston, of the Parish of Saint Andrew Holbourn, in the County of Middlesex, Brewer, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt, is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major Part of them, on the 1st and 25th of February next, and on the 11th of March following, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon on each of the said Days, at Guildhall, London, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and at the second Sitting to choose Assignees, and at the last Sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his Examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the Allowance of his Certificate. All Persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his Effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint.

Whereas a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against William Jefferison, of Scarbrough in the County of York, Grocer, and he being declared a Bankrupt, is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major Part of them, on the 20th and 21st of February next, and on the 11th of March following, at Two of the Clock in the Afternoon, on each of the said Days, at the House of Thomas Stockdale, Innholder, at the Sign of the Old Globe in Scarbrough aforesaid, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and at the second Sitting to choose Assignees, and at the last Sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his Examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the Allowance of his Certificate. All Persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his Effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give Notice to Mr. Borwick, Attorney, in Staple Inn, London.

THE Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Watson and William Tateham, of Cornhill, London, Haberdashers and Partners, intend to meet on the 22^d of February next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, at Guildhall, London, in order to make a Dividend of the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors who have not already proved their Debts, are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Dividend.

THE Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Edmund Littlehales, of Shrewsbury, in the County of Salop, Draper, intend to meet on the 24th of February next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the House of William Ward, situate in the Raven Street in the Town of Shrewsbury aforesaid, in order to make a Dividend of the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors, who have not already proved their Debts, are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Dividend.

THE Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Robert Westcott, of Lynn Regis in the County of Norfolk, Merchant, intend to meet on the 21st Day of February next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, at Guildhall, London, in order to make a further Dividend of the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors who have not already proved their Debts, are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Dividend.

THE Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Camm, late of Abington in the County of Berks, Dealer and Chapman, intend to meet on the 24th Day of February next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, at Guildhall, London, in order to make a Dividend of the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors, who have not already proved their Debts, are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Dividend.

Whereas the acting Commissioners in the Commission of Bankrupt awarded against John French, late of Needham Market in the County of Suffolk, Grocer, Tallow Chandler, Dealer and Chapman, have certified to the Right Hon^{ble} Sir Robert Henley, Knt. Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain, that the said John French hath in all Things conformed himself according to the Directions of the several Acts of Parliament made concerning Bankrupts; This is to give Notice, that by Virtue of an Act passed in the fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, his Certificate will be allowed and confirmed as the said Act directs, unless Cause be shown to the contrary on or before the 18th of February next.
