AT the Court at St. James's, the 13th Day of January 1758,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Ninth of November last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, will expire upon the Fourteenth Day of this Instant January: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January 1757: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Twenty-eighth Day of February next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

of Cardinals in that Quality. Cardinal Mattee is so dangerously ill of a violent Fever, that he is past all Hopes of Recovery.

Florence, Jan. 28. The Dispositions are continuing here for the March of three Battalions of Tuscan Troops that are to go into Germany; accordingly a Draft of 400 Men out of the said Troops, in Garrison here, were sent last Week to Leghorne, to join their Corps. On the 22d Instant M. Sels, Rear Admiral of a Dutch Squadron, arrived here from Leghorn. He has lately been at Algiers, and renewed the Peace between his Republick and the Bey of that Place.

Leghorn, Jan. 30. Yesterday arrived here His Britannick Majesty's Ship the Syren, Capt. Collingwood, Commander, with seven Sail of English Ships from Newfoundland, last from Gibraltar, loaden with Fish for this Place.

Admiralty-Office, February 20, 1758.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the 26th Year of His Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information hath been sent to this Office, That on the 20th of last Month, a Brig called the Furnace, William Park, Master, from London for Newry in Ireland, laden with Brandy, Oyl, Prunes, and Rozin, Prize Goods, and Beer and Hops, was stranded on the Scilly Islands; but Part of the Cargo is saved and lodged in proper Cellars, on Account of the Proprietors.

Also on the 26th past, the Ship Friendship, from London for Bristol, with Wheat, Flour, &c. was wreck'd on the said Islands, the Vessel and Cargo both lost.
