Dublin, April 25.

To his Grace John Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Grace,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to congratulate with your Grace on the approaching Conclusion of this Session of Parliament, a Session eminently distinguished, through the weighty Influence of your Grace's Recommendation, by many signal Instances of His Majesty's Royal Bounty, and by many Laws of the highest Importance to the Welfare and Improvement of this Kingdom.

We justly considered the Appointment of your Grace to the Government of Ireland, as a most interesting Proof of His Majesty's paternal Goodness. The Principles and Virtues inherited by your Grace from your Illustrious Ancestors, had always been the Objects of our Reverence and Admiration, and the vigorous Exertion of those Virtues by your Grace in important Stations (equally to the Honour of the Crown and Advantage of the Publick) afforded us the most lively Presage of Happiness, in being committed to your Grace's Care.

Your Grace, on your first Entrance into the high Office you now adorn, confirmed our warmest Hopes, and by your generous Attention to our Distresses in the late Scarcity, deservedly endeared yourself to a relieved and thankful People.

They have since seen the whole Tenor of your Grace's Conduct, animated by the same noble Principle of Benevolence and Publick Spirit, and thankfully acknowledge, that the Publick Tranquillity and Happiness have been the great and constant Object of your Attention and Care, through the whole Course of your wise and mild Administration.

With the most respectful and affectionate Gratitude, they therefore regard your Grace as the worthy Representative of His Majesty, the gracious and equal Father of all His People, and from His long and experienced Goodness, flatter themselves His Majesty will graciously indulge their unanimous and ardent Wishes, by continuing your Grace to preside over us.

We beg Leave to assure your Grace that we heartily concur with the general Wishes of the Kingdom, and that we will zealously endeavour to promote that good Temper and Harmony, which your Grace's Justice and Prudence have happily established amongst us; that upon your Return to this Kingdom your Grace may find us (what we ever ought to be) a People united in Affection, as we are in Interest and Duty, and unanimously determined to make your Grace's Administration as easy and honourable to Grace as it hath been, and we are assured ever will be beneficial and satisfactory to the Publick.

We rely with perfect Confidence on that Candour which is inherent in your Grace, and which adds Lustre to your brightest and most amiable Actions, that, on your Grace's Return into the Royal Presence, we shall be represented to His Majesty, as His loyal, dutiful, and grateful Subjects, firmly attached to the Support of His Royal Person and Family, affectionately sollicitous for the long Continuance of His precious Life, and warmly zealous for the Honour and Dignity of His Crown, the Success of His Arms, and the lasting Glory and Felicity of His most auspicious Reign.

Hen. Baker Sterne, Cler^t Parliamentor^t

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

I Think myself extremely obliged to the House of Lords for this very affectionate Address. The Good of His Majesty's Service, the true Interest of Ireland, and the promoting Harmony and Union, have been the only Objects of my Administration, and the Approbation of my Conduct, so kindly expressed by the House of Lords, gives me the most sincere Satisfaction.

To his Grace John Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeses in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Grace,

WE the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, think ourselves called upon, as dutiful and affectionate Subjects to His Majesty, and as Representatives of the People, to congratulate with your Grace on the approaching happy Conclusion of this Session of Parliament, and to acknowledge, that we owe it to your Grace's prudent, just, and mild Administration.

The eminent Merits of your Illustrious Ancestors; your Grace's own Abilities, shewn in Employments of the greatest Trust and Difficulty; your steady Attachment to the King, and to the Constitution; and that Integrity and Humanity, the Supports of your publick, and the Ornaments of your private Character, had long been the Objects of our Esteem and Admiration. And the early Instance of Your Grace's generous and compassionate Relief to the Distresses of this Kingdom, raised in us the justest Expectations of seeing those useful Virtues exercised in promoting the general Good of the People committed to Your Care. But we must confess, that our warmest Hopes have been exceeded. The several excellent and salutary Bills, which, by His Majesty's unparalleled Goodness, have been returned to us, and are now passed, or are ready to be passed into Laws, are the most affecting Proofs, and will remain lasting Monuments of your Grace's sincere and effectual Interposition in our Favour.

These Benefits are not confined to this Time only, they will descend to our latest Posterity; and by them, as well as by us, your Grace's Name will ever be remembered with peculiar and distinguished Gratitude.

Our Knowledge of your Grace's Justice and Candour gives us the fullest Confidence, that, on your Return to the Royal Presence, you will assure His Majesty of our inviolable Duty and Loyalty; and that we, and those whom we represent, are truly sensible of the inestimable Blessings we enjoy under His most auspicious Reign, and are ready, upon all Occasions, to exert our utmost Strength in the Defence, and in the Support of His Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, upon the Preservation of which, and of the Succession to the Crown in His Royal House, our Prosperity, our Safety, and our very Being in this Kingdom, entirely depend.

We cannot omit returning our sincere Thanks to your Grace, for your unwearied, and, we hope, successful Endeavours, to promote that Harmony amongst us, which is so essential to the Good of His Majesty's Service, and to the Welfare of the Country. It shall be our constant Care, as much as lies in us, to strengthen and to perfect the Work, which your Grace has so happily begun: But that it may be effectually compleated, your Grace will be pleased to accept our earnest Wish, that you may return to take the Government of this Kingdom upon you; and and that your Grace may long continue to preside over a loyal, grateful, and united People.

E. Sterling, } Cler. Dom. Com.
H. Alcock, }

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

I Return the House of Commons my sincerest Thanks for this very obliging Address. It shall be my Study to deserve the Continuance of their Approbation. I am extremely glad, that my Endeavours to serve this Kingdom have proved acceptable to them, and they may be assured, that I have nothing more at Heart than the real Interest of Ireland, which can never be so effectually promoted, as by Harmony and Union.

Dublin, April 29.

His Grace the Lord Lieutenant went this Day to the House of Peers, and being seated on the Throne, with the usual Ceremony, his Grace sent for the Commons, and gave the Royal Assent to the following Bills,

An Act for continuing and amending several Laws heretofore made relating to His Majesty's Revenue, and for the more effectual preventing of Frauds in His Majesty's Customs and Excise.

An Act for licensing Hawkers and Pedlars, and for Encouragement of English Protestant Schools.

An Act to prohibit Salesmen from being Graziers, and to redress several Abuses in buying and selling Cattle and Meat.

An Act for reviving, continuing and amending several temporary Statutes.

An Act for the more effectual preventing of Frauds and Abuses committed by Persons employed in the Manufacture of Hats, and in the Fustian, Cotton, Iron, Furr, Woollen, Mobair, and Silk Manufactures of this Kingdom; and for continuing and amending an Act made in the Seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act to prevent Frauds and Abuses in the Exportation to Great Britain.

An Act more effectually to enable the Clergy having Cure of Souls to reside upon their respective Benefices, and to build upon their respective Glebe Lands.

An Act for the more effectual carrying into Execution an Act intitled, An Act for the Relief of the Creditors of the Bank lately kept by Samuel Burton and Daniel Fulkner, and of the Creditors of the Bank lately kept by Benjamin Burton, Samuel Burton and Daniel Fulkner, and of the Creditors of the Bank lately kept by Benjamin Burton and Samuel Burton, and of the Creditors of the Bank lately kept by Benjamin Burton and Francis Harrison.

An Act to explain and amend the several Laws made in this Kingdom, for the more effectual Preservation of Salmon Fish and Fry, and for the better Improvement of the Ewring Fishery.

An Act for better supplying the City of Dublin with Coals, and for the better Encouragement of the Colliers of this Kingdom.

An Act to prevent unlawful Combinations to raise the Price of Coals in the City of Dublin.

An Act for the Recovery of small Debts in a summary Way in the City of Dublin, and the Liberties thereof.

An Act to prevent Frauds in Lappers, and others; and to prevent Abuses in the Manufacture of Kelp, and to prevent unlawful Combinations in Weavers, and others.

An Act for making and repairing the Road from the Town of Castlemore in the County of Kilkenny, through the Towns of Ballyraggel, Freshford, and Hurlingford in the said County, to the Town of Dundrum in the County of Tipperary, and from thence through New Castle to the City of Limerick.

An Act for making a wide and convenient Way, Street and Passage from Essex Bridge to the Castle of Dublin, and for other Purposes therein mentioned.

An Act for the widening and repairing, or rebuilding a Bridge called Baal's Bridge in the City and Garrison of Limerick; and for enabling and obliging the Persons intitled to the Houses and Ground on the said Bridge to dispose of their Interests in the same on reasonable Terms for the Purposes aforesaid.

And to Six private Bills.

And then his Grace was pleased to make a Speech to both Houses of Parliament, which is as follows.

My Lords and Gentlemen,
THE Session of the Year, and your long Attendance in Parliament, make it necessary to close this Session.

His Majesty's Goodness in complying with the Requests of His Parliament, and the singular Confidence He has reposed in you, by giving His Royal Assent to the Bills for granting Premiums on the Inland Carriage of Corn, and for the Freight of Coals, for the Payment of which no Provision has yet been made, are strong Proofs of His gracious Attention to the Welfare of this Kingdom, and call for the most grateful Confidence on your Parts, for the Support of His Government, on which your Safety, and the Publick Happiness, under God, chiefly depend.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I am commanded to thank you, in His Majesty's Name, for the usual Supplies you have granted to support this Establishment, assuring you they shall be applied, with Frugality, for the Publick Service.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Nothing can be more seasonably recommended to you, at this Time, than to cultivate a good Understanding amongst His Majesty's Subjects, which will best secure the Publick Peace, and prevent the fatal Consequence of Dissatisfaction at Home.

I must again thank you for the obliging Approbations you have, by your respective Addresses, given to my Conduct here.

My sincere Intentions have been to promote the real Interest and Prosperity of Ireland: On these Principles I shall continue to act, depending on your Unanimity to render them effectual.

I shall, on my Return into the Royal Presence, most faithfully represent your dutiful and affectionate Zeal for His Majesty's Sacred Person and Government; and as Occasions offer, warmly recommend, to His Grace and Favour, those who shall distinguish themselves in continuing and preserving the Peace and Happiness of this Kingdom.

Capitulation of Schweidnitz.

IT is demanded that the whole Garrison, without Exception, shall be at Liberty to march out of the Place with two Field Pieces for each Battallion; and besides this Artillery, with two Mortars, and 126 Charges for each Cannon, and 60 for each Foot Soldier and Trooper. The Garrison shall keep its Baggage, so that it shall be permitted them to come for what cannot immediately be carried off; and they shall march out with Drums beating and Colours flying.

Refused; as well as the second and third Articles. The whole Garrison are Prisoners of War. They shall be permitted to march out with their Arms, and Colours flying, by the Gate of Striegau, and to file off through the King's Army; but they shall afterwards lay down their Arms; and all the Horses belonging to the Cavalry shall be faithfully given up, with all their Accoutrements, to the End that the Prussian Cavalry may receive them, and conduct them to Breslau, and from thence to the other Places of their Destination. The Officers of the Garrison shall have their Equipages granted to them, and the Subaltern Officers and Soldiers their Haversacks; but Relay-Horses are refused.

II. Relay-Horses shall be granted, gratis, to the Officers, who have not enough, themselves, to transport their Baggage to the nearest Fortress belonging to her Imperial Majesty.

III. The Garrison shall be escorted, by the nearest Route, to the said Fortress.

IV. It is demanded that the Garrison may take with them the Military Chest which is here, for their Entertainment.

Refused. They must deliver to the King's Commissary of War all the Imperial Chests, as well as those of the Regiments.

V. That Bread and Forage be furnished to the Battalions and Squadrons which shall go out of the City.

Their

Their Subsistence shall be provided for in the Places to which they shall be conducted.

VI. That the Sick and Wounded be well treated and provided with all they shall want; that Passports shall be given them as soon as they are in a Condition to set out for their Regiments, and that an Officer shall be permitted to remain with them in the City to take Care of them.

Care shall be taken of the Wounded, but they shall be Prisoners of War as well as all the Garrison.

VII. That all the Prussians, who have been made Prisoners before or during the Siege, shall be looked upon as such, and exchanged in Consequence Man for Man against those of the Garrison who have been taken this Night.

Refused. All the Prisoners who are at Schweidnitz shall be delivered up To-morrow Morning at eight o'Clock; and the Reverends of all those who have been released upon their Parole, shall likewise be delivered up.

VIII. That the Garrison may take with them six Covered Waggon, which shall not be visited under any Pretence whatsoever.

Refused.

IX. That the Magistrates, and all those in her Imperial Majesty's Service, shall keep their Employments; and that those, who do not choose to remain, shall be free to quit theirs, and retire with their Effects.

Refused. This depends upon the King.

X. That the Provincial Councillor, who was found in the City before it was invested, and who has not been able since to go out of it, may now return to his Estate.

He is at Liberty to stay in the City, or go into the Country, but he shall faithfully deliver up the Archives and all Papers which concern the City and Circle of Schwidnitz.

XI. That the Garrison may remain four Days here, reckoning from the Date of this Capitulation, to take the necessary Arrangements for its March.

The Garrison shall march out the 18th, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning.

XII. As soon as the Capitulation is concluded, a Gate shall be delivered up to the Prussians.

The Gate of Striegau, and that called the Petersthor, must be delivered to them this Day.

XIII. It is required, that the Prussian Troops may not be permitted to enter into the City before the Garrison be gone out of it, and that the latter be not in any Manner insulted.

The Imperial Troops shall not be insulted by any Means.

XIV. That the City preserve all its Privileges, and the free Exercise of the Catholick Religion.

This depends upon his Majesty.

XV. The Commandant engages upon his Honour faithfully to discover all the Mines of the Place, and all the Magazines, of what Nature soever.

This Day and To-morrow, all the Magazines and Chests shall be delivered to the King's Commissary. The Artillery shall be delivered to Colonel Dieckow, and the Plans and Maps, as also all that relates to the Fortifications, as well of Schweidnitz as other Places, whether they belong to the Empress Queen or to private Persons, shall be delivered to the Colonel of the Engineers, de Balby, to whom Discovery shall be made of the Mines and Works under Ground.

XVI. The Commandant demands also Permission to send an Officer immediately to his Excellency Marshal Daun.

Granted.

XVII. And that Hostages be given on each Side till the Conclusion of the Capitulation.

Schweidnitz, the 16th of April 1758.

F. L. Count de Thurhaimb,
Lieutenant General.
Baron de Krottendorf,
Major General.

Major Baron de Wallis remains here as a Hostage, and Major d'Embers remains in Exchange in the City.

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, Dec. 1, 1757.

WHEREAS adhering to the King's Enemies, by giving to them Aid or Comfort, either within his Realm, or elsewhere, is High Treason, and the Concealment thereof is Misprision of Treason;

And Whereas the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have received Information, That a Loan of Money for that Purpose is at this Time negotiating in this Kingdom; Their Lordships do hereby promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person, by whose Discovery any Subject of His Majesty, or any Person residing within this Realm, shall be convicted of lending or advancing directly or indirectly, or of causing or procuring to be so lent or advanced, or of subscribing for, or contributing to, or of soliciting or contracting for or remitting, either in Coin or Bullion, or by Bill or Bills of Exchange, or by any other Means whatsoever, any Sum or Sums of Money, to or for the Use or Purpose aforesaid. The said Reward to be paid immediately on the Conviction of every such Offender, by the Solicitor of the Treasury, without Deduction, their Lordships having given Directions for the immediate Prosecution of such Offenders.

Admiralty Office, May 6, 1758.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrent Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Checque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Mr. Charles Fearn, at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute to the Widows of Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August 1732, as well as to the Widows of those who died since that Time, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Monies as may be due to them on the 31st of May Instant; This is to give Notice thereof, that any Widows who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible; and that all such Widows whose Claims have been already allowed, may send or bring to this Office, by the 31st of this Instant, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Pension or Bounty.

General Post Office, May 5, 1758.

Whereas divers Persons, through Ignorance or Carelessness, frequently put Letters into this Office, as also into the Post Offices both in Town and Country, that are directed on Board of Ships, and to Foreign Parts, without paying, at the same Time, the legal Postage for the same; and whereas Letters and Packets, are frequently put into the said Offices, which contain Money, Rings, or other Things of the like Nature; This is to give Notice, that no Letter or Packet whatsoever, under the above Circumstances, can, for the Time to come, be forwarded from hence, or from any other Post Office in the Kingdom.

N. B. Letters to Holland and Flanders are forwarded without any Foreign Postage demanded here, but if they are sent from the Country the Inland Postage must be paid to London.

*By Order of His Majesty's Postmaster General.
