AT the Court at Kensington, the 28th Day of July 1758,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Twenty Ninth of June last,

For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, will expire upon the Twelfth Day of August next; And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; — His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Thirtieth Day of September next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January 1757: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Thirtieth Day of September next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Cadiz, July 18. This Day Admiral Reggio returned into this Bay with the Spanish Squadron under his Command, and it is expected that some of the Ships will be laid up again.

Turin, July 26. The last Letters from Toulon confirm the Report of his Britannick Majesty's Ship the St. Albans, having carried into Gibraltar, the Loire, a Frigate of 36 Guns, but pierced for 44, with two Polaccas loaded with Stores and Ammunition for Martinico.

Florence, July 29. Last Week anchored at Leghorn, His Britannick Majesty's Ships the Monmouth, the Hon. Capt. Hervey, and the Lyme, from a Cruize they had made in the Channel of Malta and the Coast of Barbary, where Capt. Hervey drove a French Frigate, called the Rose, on Shore, and obliged the French to set Fire to her, to prevent her falling into his Hands.
