By the King's Patent.

HIS Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant his Royal Letters Patent, bearing Date at Westminster the 21st Day of Dec. 1758, in the 32d Year of his Reign, unto James Poole and William Ringsted, of Long Acre in the County of Middlesex, Coachmakers, for their new Invention of making Coaches, Charriots, Post Chaises, Sedan Chaires, and other such-like Carriages, and also for their Inventing and Introducing into Publick Practice, Plates for covering the same, made of Copper, Iron, or other Metal beautifully enamel'd or japan'd with Gold or without, instead of Leather; which they, by great Labour and Experience, have brought to Perfection, and which is a great Improvement and Ornament to such Carriages, and prevents Rain from getting thro' them, and they are more durable, lighter and easier cleaned, and retain their Lustre longer than those covered with Leather; This is to acquaint the Publick, That they have made several such Carriages, which has given great Satisfaction, and have now several more in Hand for any Gentlemen or Ladies that please to favour them with their Orders: And that all such Coachmakers, as shall want any Plates, may be supplied with the same, at Smiths Warehouse in Parker's-Lane near Little Queen's-Street; or by Jacob Smith, of Warfall in Staffordshire, who is authorized by the Patentees to make, vend, and sell the same, and no one else.

Tuesday the 27th Day of February, in the Thirty Second Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, 1759, between William Dear, Plaintiff; Thomas Bailey, Defendant.

UPON the humble Petition of the Plaintiff, this Day preferred to the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, for the Reasons therein, and in the Affidavit thereto annexed contained, it is ordered, That the said Defendant Thomas Bailey do appear to the Plaintiff's Bill on or before the 31st Day of March next.
