AT the Court at Kensington, the 10th Day of August, 1759,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fifteenth of May last, "For giving Encouragement to Seamen, and Able bodied Landmen, to enter themselves on Board His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves; for pardoning such Seamen as have deserted, and shall return into the Service; and also for taking up all straggling Seamen", was, by Order in Council of the 26th of June last, prolonged and extended from the 3d of July, to the 18th of this Instant August — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer; — His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, that the Time limited by the said

Hague, Sept. 7. By the last Accounts Prince Ferdinand's Army still remained encamped at Wetter; and the French kept their Position behind the Ohm. It is supposed however, that they cannot continue there, but will choose rather to take a Camp between Giessen and Wetzlar; a few Days must necessarily determine that Point. The Hereditary Prince, who Commands a Detachment of the Allied Army upon the Right, is always close upon the French, and continually beating up their Quarters. His Highness has crossed the Lahn, and encamped on the 2d Instant near Lohausen, and on the same Day pushed forward, with a Part of his Corps, to Nieder Weimar, where he surprised the Enemy, took two Pieces of Cannon, and several Prisoners, without any Loss on his Side.

We have received Accounts here, that the Russians marched from their Camp near Francfort upon the Oder, and left that Town on the 29th past, seeming to direct their Course towards Lusatia: Whereupon the King of Prussia marched from Furstenwalde, where he was incamped, crossed the River Sprehe, and advanced to Beeskow on the 30th, and from thence to Lubben on the 31st; General Finck having been left behind, with a small Body of Men, in the Camp of Furstenwalde. A Corps of Austrians has joined the Army of the Empire; but that Junction has not prevented the Prussians under General Wunsch from retaking Wittenberg, and marching towards Torgau.

Kensington, September 9.

This Day Signior Celisia, Minister charged with the Affairs of the Republick of Genoa, had his Audience of Leave of her Royal Highness Princess Amelia;

And afterwards of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland:

To both which he was introduced by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Kensington, September 10.

This Day the Marquis d'Abreu, Envoy Extraordinary from the Court of Spain, had a private Audience of His Majesty, to notify the Death

Death of the late King of Spain : To which he was introduced by the Right Honourable William Pitt, Esq; one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

September 5, 1759.

Treasury Chambers, August 7, 1759.

WHEREAS notwithstanding the several Acts of Parliament now in Force for preventing illegal Lotteries, and the several Convictions of Offenders in pursuance thereof, Information has been lately given to the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, that there is now on Foot in Ireland a Scheme for raising a Sum of Money by the Sale of Tickets or Chances to be determined by the Drawing of the present State Lottery, and that the said Scheme is handed about this Town and other Parts of this Kingdom, and that Tickets or Chances agreeable thereunto are offered to Sale in Defiance and Contempt of the several Acts of Parliament for prohibiting the same; Therefore, in order to put a Stop to such unlawful Proceedings, and to prevent the Ignorant and Unwary from being drawn in by so illegal and pernicious a Practice; This is to inform the Public, that the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have given Directions to their Solicitor to prosecute with the utmost Rigour and Severity of the Law all such as shall be anyways concerned in publishing such Schemes, or buying or selling any such Tickets or Chances. And whereas Mr. John M'Carrick and Mr. Henry Lunn, late of the City of London, were on the 8th of March 1757, convicted of the like Offence, and have ever since absconded in order to avoid the Penalties thereby incurred: Therefore the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury are hereby pleased to offer a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to be paid to any Person or Persons that shall apprehend either of them, on immediate Notice thereof being given to Philip Cartet Webb, Esq; their Solicitor.
