Kensington, October 30.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Burgesſes, and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, has been preſented to His Maſteſty by Robert Nugent, Eſq; one of their Representatives in Parliament: Which Adreſs His Maſteſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Maſteſty,
The humble Adreſs of the Mayor, Burgesſes, and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, in Common-Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

YOUR moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesſes, and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, in Common-Council aſſembled, moſt humbly beſeech Your Maſteſty to accept their ſincere Congratulation upon the rapid and victorious Progreſs of your Maſteſty's Arms, eſpecially in this laſt important Event, of reducing to your Obedience the ſtrong City of Quebec, the Capital of the French Dominions in North America.

We never can ſufficiently acknowledge, amongſt the numerous Inſtances of your Royal Magnanimity, and the Firmneſs and Wiſdom of your Councils, your not being diverted by any Circumſtance whatever, from pushing this juſt and neceſſary War in ſo vigorous and eſſectual a Manner, in Support of the Common Liberties of Europe, and the undoubted Rights and Interests of your Kingdoms: For the late amazing and ſpirited Succeſſes of your Maſteſty's Forces by Sea and Land, adding Conqueſt to Conqueſt through the four Quarters of the Globe, muſt manifeſt to all the World, that your Maſteſty, at the Head of a brave and united People, hath ample Power for the Chaſtiſement of faithleſs Nations.

But what redounds moſt to the Britiſh Glory, is your Maſteſty's Moderation in Victory, and Diſinterreſtedneſs in the Uſe you make of it, ſince, amidſt the Horrors of War, your gallant Commanders remember the Rights of Humanity, and inſtantly afford both Safety and Protection to the Conquer'd: Though indeed every Thing that is generous and noble, is ever to be expected from thoſe who act under your Maſteſty's immediate Orders, and are animated by your great Example.

May your Maſteſty long live the Favourite of Heaven, the Patron of Liberty, and the mighty Avenger of publick Wrongs: And may you long poſſeſs the Hearts and Affections of your faithful Subjects, who, truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings and Security they have enjoyed through your Maſteſty's auſpicious Reign, are ready to riſe up as one Man in Defence of your Royal Perſon, Family, and Government, againſt every hostile Attempt of your Enemies.

The following Adreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Exeter, having been tranſmitted by Richard Jackſon, Eſq; Mayor of Exeter, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been preſented to His Maſteſty: Which Adreſs His Maſteſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Maſteſty,
The humble Adreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber aſſembly.

May it pleaſe your moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

WE your Maſteſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of your City of Exeter, humbly beg Leave to preſs into your Royal Preſence, and to renew our moſt ſincere Congratulations on that continued Series of repeated Succeſſes, with which it hath pleaſed the Divine Providence to crown the Juſtice of your Maſteſty's Arms, on the ſeveral glorious Advantages they have, within the Compaſs of theſe laſt twelve Months, obtained in every Part of the World; and more eſpecially on the lateſt and moſt important of them all, the Deſeat of the French Army under the Walls of Quebec, and the Reduction of that City, the Capital and Key of all the French Eſtabliſhments on the Continent of America, and the Place of Arms from whence have iſſued all thoſe Expeditions, which have ſo cruelly ravaged and laid Waſte the Frontiers of your Maſteſty's Colonies: The Activity, the Reſolution, and the good Conduct of the ſeveral Commanders employed by your Maſteſty, together with the irrefiſtible Bravery and Diſcipline of your Forces both by Sea and Land, have raiſed the Glory of the Britiſh Arms to the higheſt Pitch, and will ever diſtinguiſh this Illuſtrious Year to the lateſt Poſterity.

On this Occaſion of general Joy, may we be permitted to do Juſtice to the uncommon Merit of our late brave Fellow Citizen, the gallant Leader of your Maſteſty's Troops on this difficult and hazardous Enterprize, by teſtifying our deep Concern and Regret at the Loſs of a General, whoſe intrepid Courage, extenſive Abilities, and indefatigable Activity, ſeem to have marked him out as one of thoſe very few Perſons, deſtined by Nature to reach the utmoſt Heights of Military Glory.

In the Miſt of our Exultation on the amazing Progreſs of your Victorious Arms, we ſhould be wanting both in Duty and Gratitude, if we did not aſcribe it, under God, chiefly to the Wiſdom, the Steadiſneſs, and the Patriotiſm of your Maſteſty's Councils, ever invariably directed to promote the National Interests, and demonſtrating, with a Conviction not to be reſiſted, that your Maſteſty can have no other Views, no other Sentiments, than thoſe which fill the Breaſt of the true Father of his People. This paternal Character, ſo conſpicuous in every Meaſure your Maſteſty purſues, hath enabled your Maſteſty to achieve another Conqueſt, of all others the moſt Valuable, and perhaps the moſt Difficult, and added a Glory to your Reign, of which very few of your Royal Predeceſſors cessors could ever equally boast; a Glory personal to your Majesty, and peculiarly your own; that of the utter Extinction of all Party among your Subjects, and the Union of the hearts of the whole Nation in the most unreserved Confidence, the most loyal Affection, and the warmest Zeal towards your Royal Person and Government.

Conscious of the Security we derive from this happy Circumstance, we behold without Apprehension the numerous Armies assembled, and the formidable Preparations made, on the opposite Coast, menacing an Invasion of these Kingdoms; being perfectly convinced that such an Attempt, on a Nation so firmly compacted and indissolubly united to and under your Majesty, can terminate in nothing but the Confusion and Destruction of our Enemies. And, humbly relying on the Divine Protection, we doubt not but the Disappointment of this last desperate Effort of impotent Rage, will accelerate the Accomplishment of your Majesty's grand Aim, the Restoration of an honourable and a lasting Peace.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall of the City of Exeter, this Twentieth seventh Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, 1759.

The following Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, has been presented to His Majesty by Mr. Morrison, Recorder of Lincoln: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

MAY it please you, to accept the Congratulations of your most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of your ancient City of Lincoln, in Common Council assembled, on the repeated Successes of your Majesty's Arms in America, and the Reduction of Quebec, the Capital City of the French Colonies there.

Let us, Royal Sir, further express our unfeigned Joy, on the late signal Victory in Germany, over the Flower of the French Army, greatly superior in Number, and commanded by their most able and experienced Generals.

Under your Auspices, our Fleets and Armies have acted with that Union, Ability and Valour, as are the proper Characteristicks of true Britons; and by these Means, the Colours of the British Empire are displayed, triumphant, through every Part of the known World.

Our Liberties and Trade have been protected by the prudent Directions of your Majesty, and your Councils; whilst the Fleets of our Enemies (notwithstanding their boasted Threats) dare not come out of their Harbours; and have tamely permitted their Country to be insulted, and their Commerce effectually destroyed.

We pray to God, to bless more and more the Arms of your Majesty, and those of your Allies: That after a Series of glorious and happy Successes, there may result from thence, a firm and lasting Peace; and that the Lustre and Glory, which this State has attained to by the particular Favour of the Almighty, under your Majesty's most wise Government, may be long preserved.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall of the City of Lincoln aforesaid, the Twenty-fifth Day of October, in the Thirty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Common Council of the Borough and Corporation of Liverpoole, having been transmitted by Sir Ellis Cunliffe, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Borough and Corporation of Liverpoole, in Council assembled.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Borough and Corporation of Liverpoole in Council assembled, beg Leave to offer to Your Majesty our most humble and hearty Congratulations on the continued Series of Success with which it has pleased the Divine Providence to bless Your Majesty's Arms, within the Compass of one Year, in every Quarter of the World.

The Power of the French repelled in the East-Indies; their Fleet defeated off Cape Lagos; their Armies totally routed on the Plains of Minden; the Islands of Goree and Guadeloupe, and the Forts of Duquesne, Niagara, Picardoupe, and Brown Point, taken; the above all, Quebec, the second Capital of the French Empire in America, subjected to British Dominion.---These signal Victories and Advantages obtained, whilst our Trade has been secured, and our Manufactures encouraged, must mark Your Majesty's Reign a distinguished Era in the Annals of Great-Britain.

Your Majesty's experienced paternal Care and Protection engage us to exert ourselves to the utmost to support Your Majesty against all the Attempts of Your Enemies.---We entirely rely on the Wisdom of Your Majesty's Counsels in the proper Prosecution of this just and necessary War; not doubting but Your Majesty, by the Divine Blessing, will in due Time procure for us a solid and honourable Peace.

Given under the common Seal of the Borough and Corporation of Liverpoole this Twenty-seventh Day of October, in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty-Nine.

Extract of a Letter from Capt. Porter, Commander of His Majesty's Ship the Hercules of 70 Guns, to Mr. Cleveland, dated in Plymouth Sound, 26 October, 1759,

On the 10th Instant, at Eight in the Morning, being in the Latitude of about 46 Deg. 40 Min. steering S. E. with the Wind at S. W. we saw a Sail to Windward, which we chased, and soon after discovered her Top Gallant fruding Sails set, and that she came down tacking upon us: About Noon she Chace hoisted a blue Flag at her Main-top Gallant Mast Head, which we answered by hoisting an English Ensign at the Mizzen-top Mast-head (a Signal which is sometimes made between two French Ships of War upon meeting after parting Company) she neared us very fast, and we plainly discovered her to be a large Ship of War. At Two in the Afternoon, a Dutch Gal-riot passing near us, we hoisted a French Jack, and fired a Shot at her; upon which the Chace hoisted a French Jack at her Ensign-staff, and fired a Gun to Leeward. At Half past Five, being about one Mile to Windward of us, and abaft, our Beam coming down as before seemingly with an Intention of coming to Action, as her guns were run out below, she hauled her Jack down, and hoisted her Ensign and Pendant: We shortened Sail, hauled down the French Jack, hoisted our Colours, hauled our Ports up (which were until this Time down) and run our Weather Guns out; upon which she immediately hauled her Wind, and set her Main-sail and Stay-sails: We then discovered her to be a 74 Gun Ship, having 14 Ports below, made Sail and stretched a-head of her, and tacked, passing her to Leeward. At Six tacked again, and stood after her; found she kept away large; we bore after her, keeping her a little upon the Lee-Bow, to prevent her Choice of the engaging Distance. About Three Quarters after Nine, being pretty near up with her, tho' not near enough to engage, she put her Helm hard a-Starboard, and gave us her Larboard Broadside, and then kept on as before, and gave us her Starboard Broadside. We then immediately starboarded our Helm, and ran right down upon her, whilst she was loading her Guns, and getting close to her, ported our Helm, and began to engage as the Guns bore upon her. At Half past Ten we were so unlucky as to have our Maintopmast shot away, which she took the Advantage of, and made all the Sail she could from us; we did the same after her, and continued to chase until Eight the next Morning, when we saw the North End of Oleron about Five Leagues Distance. The Chase was about four or five Miles from us; finding it impossible to come up with her in so short a Run, and engaging ourselves with a Lee Shore, with our Fore Yard shot thro' in two Places, our Fore-top Sail Yard so badly wounded, that when we came afterwards to reef the Sail it broke, and having all our Sails and Rigging very much shattered, (at which the Enemy only aimed) we left off Chase and wore Ship, having one Man killed, and two wounded, including myself, being wounded in my Head by a Grape Shot, and have lost the Use of my Right Leg. The Officers and Men behaved with the greatest Spirits and Alertness, without the least Confusion.

Saville-House, October 28.

This Day Hussein Bey, lately arrived Ambassador from Tripoli, had his first Audience of his Royal Highness Prince Edward;

And afterwards of her Royal Highness the Princess Augusta, at Leicester House, and had the Honor to present his Son at the same Time.

To both which he was introduced by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 23d Day of October, 1759,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 14th of April last, for prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 29th Day of this Instant October.—And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some longer Time.—His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit and Command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master General, Lieutenant General, or Principal Officers of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 29th Day of this Instant October, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or Ship or Lade any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty-Ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign, entituled, "An Act to impower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt Petre, and to enforce the Law for impowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition." And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great-Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.
