

World where your Arms have been resplendent, how dear your just and mild Administration hath rendered you to a free and a grateful People; whom, animated by a Zeal for your Service, no Dangers can terrify, or Difficulties dishearten. And tho' all Honour is due to the Memory of that Brave Commander, who so gloriously fell in the last great Enterprize; yet we doubt not there will be found among your Subjects many a Gallant Gentleman, who, inspired by the same noble Ardour, shall, with equal Abilities, supply that Loss, and make it rather gratefully to be lamented than too sensibly to be felt.

We cannot but, with equal Scorn and Indignation, view an Enemy every where flying before you, yet preposterously meditating an Invasion upon your Kingdoms; as if intending to take Shelter under that Arm which they dare not oppose.

We cannot sufficiently express our most dutiful Acknowledgements for your Majesty's peculiar Favour towards us, in having, at a Conjunction such as the present, been pleased to be represented here by a Chief Governor, who, every Way formed to engage our Confidence, does, in the most ample Manner, possess it; and who, so truly meriting that Confidence which we repose in him, cannot fail to unite our Hearts, and wisely to direct our Efforts; to the repelling any Insults, however insidiously contrived or desperately attempted against your Government, to the disturbing that Happiness which we enjoy under it.

And we trust, that in a Day of Trial, we shall shew ourselves steadfast in that Loyalty, for which our City hath been distinguished; and be as ready to make Proof of it as we have been at all Times to profess it.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed this Twenty Ninth Day of October, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Nine.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, most humbly intreat your Majesty to accept our most sincere Congratulations upon the continued Series of important and glorious Victories, with which the Almighty hath blessed your Majesty's Fleets and Armies.

Whether we contemplate, in Europe the signal Defeat of the French Army at Thornhausen; the Destruction of their Fleet off Cape Lagos; their Coasts insulted, while their Fleets blocked up by your Majesty's Squadrons lay inactive in their Ports; whether the Disappointment of their Hopes in Asia; whether the Reduction of the Island of Goree in Africa; or, whether the total Subversion of their Empire in America, now happily completed by the Reduction of Quebec; a Conquest for ever memorable, as well for the glorious, though unfortunate Death, as the matchless Conduct and Valour of the General who achieved it, we cannot but acknowledge with the utmost Gratitude your Majesty's great Wisdom in the planning, and in the uniform Pursuit of Measures of such Consequence to the Honour of your Crown, and Welfare of your People, in the Choice of Commanders both by Sea and Land; whose Unanimity and military Conduct, seconded by the incredible Alacrity of your gallant Forces, have conspired to the happy Completion of so many glorious Enterprizes.

These publick Instances of your Majesty's paternal Care for the Safety of all your Subjects, added to the many Marks of Royal Bounty and Magnificence, with which you have particularly honoured this Society, call upon us in the strongest Manner to continue our Attention in training up the Youth of this Kingdom in Principles of affectionate Zeal and unshaken Loyalty to your Majesty, and to the Protestant Succession in your Illustrious House.

May the Divine Providence which hath so conspicuously crowned the Justice of your Majesty's Cause with Success, continue its gracious Protection to your Fleets and Armies, and enable your Majesty to put a speedy Period to the Desolations of War; by an honourable, just and lasting Peace.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Burrough of Plymouth, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Barrington: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Burrough of Plymouth.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of this Burrough, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the glorious Successes of this Year, gained in every Quarter of the Globe, by the Arms of your Majesty and your Allies.

The great and signal Advantages that have been so wonderfully obtained, so vigorously prosecuted and improved, and upon all Occasions so happily accomplished, are the strongest Proofs that no Force of the Enemy is capable of obstructing the Progress of your Majesty's Arms.

And whilst we reflect on these your Majesty's most important Conquests in general, permit us, most gracious Sovereign, in a more particular Manner to express our Thankfulness to Almighty God, for the late memorable Victory in North America; a Victory so remarkable in its Consequences, as we flatter ourselves will, in all human Probability, oblige your Enemies to accept a Peace, on such Terms as will be a lasting Security to your Majesty and your Allies.

We can never sufficiently express our grateful Sense of your Majesty's paternal Care and Tenderness for your People, on every Occasion since your Accession to the Throne; and it gives us the greatest Satisfaction to consider, that the Blessings desired to these Nations, from your Majesty's auspicious Reign, are not confined to the present Time, but we have a Prospect of a future and lasting Happiness intailed upon your People, by a long Succession of your Royal Progeny.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Walter Blackett, one of their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty, our most fervent and sincere Congratulations on the great and glorious Success, with which Divine Providence hath been pleased to bless your Majesty's Arms, in the different Quarters of the known World, during this ever memorable Year, particularly the last important Conquest of Quebec.

Your Majesty's gracious and paternal Attention to the Welfare and Happiness of your People, the Wisdom of your Councils, the Bravery of your Military Commanders by Sea and Land, fill our Hearts with Joy and Gratitude; yet, at the same Time, permit us, dread Sir! to lament the Loss your Majesty and your Subjects have received by the Death of the Gallant Young General, so early-ripened into Glory, dying Victorious in his Country's Cause.

May your Majesty continue to be served with Fidelity and Wisdom in the Cabinet, and with Conduct and Bravery in the Field; that all your Enemies may be soon reduced to acknowledge the Superiority of the
