St. James's, November 27.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town of Nottingham was presented to His Majesty, by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, Recorder of the said Town: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town of Nottingham.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town of Nottingham, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to present our most sincere and most hearty Congratulations to your Majesty upon the Signal and glorious Successes which have attended your Majesty's Arms both by Sea and Land, in the Course of this auspicious Year, particularly upon the Defeat of the French Army in Canada, and the taking of the City of Quebec; an Acquisition not less honourable to your Majesty's Forces, than destructive of the Trade, Commerce and Power of France in North America.

The great and important Advantages gained in various and far distant Parts of the World, against the restless and ambitious Disturbers of our Peace, demand, from every True Friend of our Country, the most grateful Returns of Duty and Loyalty to your Sacred Majesty, the Great Author, under God, of all our Successes and Prosperity.

We are fully sensible of the much envied Happiness and Security we enjoy under your Majesty's most gracious and most wise Government; and we shall, with the greatest Cheerfulness and Zeal, exert our utmost Endeavours upon every Occasion, in Defence of your Majesty and your Illustrious House, as the only Means of preserving these Blessings to ourselves and our Posterity.

We most sincerely join with the united Voice of our Fellow-Subjects, in praying that the Almighty may long continue your Majesty's most valuable Life, and that the same deserved Success may always attend your Majesty's Arms, which have been every where employed in a truly glorious Manner, in defending the Liberties and Properties of your Subjects, and in asserting the Civil and Religious Rights of Mankind against Tyranny and Arbitrary Power.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the Town of Nottingham, this 22d Day of November, 1759.

Hague, Nov. 23. Yesterday in the Evening an Express arrived from Mr. Hatton near Munster, to Major General Yorke, His Britannick Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary, with the News, That M. d'Armentieres had advanced in order to attempt to raise the Siege of Munster, but had retired on the 20th Instant: Whereupon the Governor of the Place had desired to capitulate. This Account was confirmed this Evening from General Imhoff, with the following Circumstances: That M. d'Armentieres had attacked that General's Posts in the Village of Albachten on the 19th at Night, and drove the Hanoverian Chasseurs from the Village, which, however, was soon recovered: That Dispositions having been made for attacking the French the next Morning, they retreated with Precipitation: That M. Gayon, the French Commandant at Munster, sent a Trumpet to demand Terms; which being granted him by the Comte de la Lippe, he marched out of the Town on the 21st: And, that General Imhoff was to enter it on the following Day. According to Account received here, the two Armies remained on the 13th in the same Position as before, upon the River Lahne.

Prince Henry of Prussia's Head Quarters at Dorfsch-nitz, in the Circle of Misnia, November 9. On the 5th Instant, the Army marched in the Afternoon to Belgern, the next Morning to Strehla, and on the 7th to Stoucha. In these Marches some few Stragglers were made Prisoners. As the Weather was extremely cold, and the Enemy were at least two Miles distant from the Corps of our Army, his Royal Highness thought proper to order the Troops to canton in the Villages every Night: But late on the 7th, having Notice by Deserters that a Corps of 25000 Austrians, commanded by General Sincere, were encamped behind Lommatfch, early on the 8th in the Morning, he drew his Troops from their Quarters of Cantonment, and brought them on the Heights before Lommatfch, where they now encamp. This little Town is situated on a Height before the Center of the Camp, and is occupied by our Troops, whose advanced Posts are within Musket-shot of General Sincere's Corps. Our Head Quarters are at Dorfsch-nitz.

The same Day General Hulsén, with the Detachment under his Command, crossed the Elbe on a Bridge of Boats, and joined his Royal Highness's Army.

Marshal Daun, it is conjectured, designs retiring into Bohemia; but still continues, it is said, making Preparations at Dresden, as if he intended defending that Place, which however it is thought is not defensible without an Army.

Whitehall, November 27.

On Saturday last arrived a Mail from New York, which brought a Letter from Major General Amherst to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, dated Camp at Crown Point, October 22, giving an Account, That the General had learnt, on the 16th of August, that the Enemy, after having abandoned Ticonderoga, and Crown Point, had retired to Isle au Noix at the other End of Lake Champlain, and Five Leagues on this Side St. John's: That M. Bourlemaque lemaque was encamped at Isle au Noix with Three Battalions of Regulars, Five Pickets of Five other regular Battalions, with Canadians and La Marine, making 3500 Men, and that he had 100 Cannon; that the Enemy had four Vessels, viz. La Vigilante, a Schooner of 10 Guns, 6 and 4 Pounders; a Sloop called Maque Longuy of 2 Brads 12 Pounders, and 6 Iron 6 Pounders; La Brochette of 8 Guns, 6 and 4 Pounders; and L'Esturgeon of 8 Guns, 6 and 4 Pounders, besides Swivels mounted in all; that M. de le Bras, a Captain of a Man of War, commanded them, with M. Rigal, and other Sea Officers, and that Part of the Pickets of Languedoc, Bearn, and La Sarre, were on board. On this Intelligence, the General sent for Captain Loring, who was building a Brigantine at Ticonderoga, who came the next Day, and having acquainted him with the Force of the Enemy, the Captain thought the Brigantine would not be of sufficient Strength, and concluded on building a Radeau, to use its Gun on the Lake, as well as to transport them over the same. That on the 1st of September the General having learnt, that the Enemy had launched a new Vessel pierced for 16 Guns, he sent for Captain Loring, that a second Vessel might be built, if it could be done without retarding the other, as it appeared the Enemy was trying all they could to have a superior Force by Water; the Captain came on the 3d, and they concluded on building a Sloop for 16 Guns: That the utmost Diligence was used in building all the above Vessels: That on the 29th of September, the Radeau, 84 Feet in Length, and 20 in Breadth, to carry Six 24 Pounders, was launched; That on the 10th of October the Brigantine arrived at Crown Point; she has Six 6 Pounders, Twelve 4 Pounders, and 20 Swivels, 70 Seamen, and 60 Marines detached from the Troops: That on the 11th, the Sloop also arrived; she has Four 6 Pounders, Twelve 4 Pounders, and 22 Swivels, 60 Seamen, and 50 Marines, and is commanded by Lieutenant Grant of Montgomery's: That, in the Course of that very Day, the General, with the Troops under his Command, embarked in Batteaus; the Sloop and Brigantine got out about Four o'Clock, sailed with a fair Wind, and the Troops followed in Four Columns, with a Light hoisted in the Night on board the Radeau. The 12th at Day-break, the General heard some Guns; Major Gladin of Gage's sent him Word he saw the Vessels engaged, but soon after found his Mistake; and Major Reid, returning with some Batteaus of the Royal Highland Regiment, reported, the Sloops had fired on him; he had lost the Columns in the Night, followed the Light of the Brigantine for the Radeau, and at Day-break found himself amongst the Enemy's Sloops at les Isles au quatre Vent: They fired several Guns, and it is supposed struck one Batteau, as they took one with Lieutenant M'Koy, one Sergeant, one Corporal, and eighteen Men: Soon after the General saw the Enemy's Sloops make all the Sail they could: Towards Night bad Weather came on, and the General ordered the Troops into a Bay on the Western Shore to be covered from the Wind, which begun to blow hard, sent the Men on Shore to boil the Pots, and relieve themselves by walking about; ordered the Rangers on an Island, and Gage's advanced on the Shore. The 13th it blew a Storm, and quite contrary Wind; continued so all Day. On the 14th the General had Letters from Capt. Loring, and Capt. Abercrombie (one of his Aids de Camp whom he had put on board) that, on the 12th at Day-break, when they judged they were forty-five Miles down the Lake, they saw the Schooner, gave Chace, and unfortunately ran the Brigantine and Sloop a-Ground, but got both off again, and then saw the Enemy's Sloops, which they had passed in the Night, between them and the Army, and chafed to bring them to Action; drove them into a Bay on the Western Shore, and anchored so as to prevent their getting away. The next Day they sent into the Bay in Search of them, and found they had sunk two of them in five Fathom Water, and ran the 3d on Ground, and that the Crews were escaped; that Capt. Loring had ordered Capt. Grant, with the Sloop, to try to save the Vessel with the Stores, Guns, and Rigging;

and that he would go to his Station, and hoped to get between the Schooner and Isle au Noix. The Men, who brought the Letter, said, Capt. Loring was about thirty Miles off, and that it was impossible for a Boat to get back while the Wind continued. The 15th it blew a Storm all Night, and the Continuance of it that Day made the Lake impassable for Boats, the Waves running like the Sea in a Gale of Wind. The 16th it froze in the Night; and in the Morning no Change of Weather: The General remained in the same Place, where the Batteaus were very luckily covered from the Wind. The 17th the same contrary Wind continued: In the Afternoon, two Whaleboats, which the General had dispatched to Capt. Loring on the 13th, came back; the Crews said, they had been trying, since that Day, all they could to get down, but could not, and were forced to return. The 18th, the Wind came to the Southward; the General proceeded immediately down the Lake as far as the Place where the French Sloops were; one was so far repaired, that she sailed that Day with the Brigantine and Sloops. The General detached 200 Men in Whale-boats to assist Captain Loring in looking for the Schooner. The 19th the Wind being Northerly, and contrary, and an Appearance of Winter being set in, the General determined not to lose Time on the Lake by striving to get to the Isle au Noix, where he should arrive too late in the Season to force the Enemy from their fixed Post, but to return to Crown Point to complete the Works there as much as possible, before the Troops go into their Winter Quarters. The General returned with the Troops to the same Bay he came from, and, on the 20th, pursued his Route, and got within 12 Miles of Crown Point; sent the Light Infantry and Grenadiers, in Whale-boats, on to that Place, and left the Rangers, with the Radeau and Boats with Guns, which could not come on so fast. On the 21st, the General arrived at Crown Point. The General observes, that building Vessels had been a tedious Business: That they have now, tho' late, the entire Dominion of Lake Champlain, and he imagines that Capt. Loring will be able to weigh up the two Sloops which are sunk, and that he has directed him to do as he judges best. General Amherst says, that the Repairs at Ticonderoga are finished; that the Ground, on which he is building a Fort at Crown Point, is the best Situation he has seen in America; that it is no where commanded, and has all the Advantages of the Lake, and Strength of Ground, that can be desired; that for the better Defence of Crown Point, and to make the Fortress as formidable as he can, he has ordered, with the Advice of the Engineer, three Forts to be erected, which he has named the Grenadier Fort, Light Infantry Fort, and Gage's Light Infantry Fort, ordering those Corps to build each their own as fast as possible; and though the Fortress and dependant Forts will not be so completely finished as he intended they should be, yet he thinks he may assure, that they will be so respectable, that the Enemy can do nothing against them, should they attempt it: That he shall continue the Works at Crown Point so long as he possibly can, and shall then try to dispose of His Majesty's Troops in such Quarters, that they may effectually protect the County from any Inroads of the Enemy, not neglecting to have a due Regard to the Care and Preservation of the Health of the Men: That a Road had been cut from the Village to join one he had directed to be made from Ticonderoga for driving Cattle, &c. and that another Road had also been cut 77 Miles to N<sup>o</sup> 4, to open a Communication from the Massachusetts and New Hampshire Governments to Crown Point: That the Works he has been carrying on have been frequently interrupted by the wet Weather, there having been, by all Accounts, more Rain this Summer, than any People remember in the Country. General Amherst adds, that the Provincials begin to grow sick, and lose some Men; that they are excellent Ax-men; that the Works could not be carried on without them; and that the Zeal and Activity of their Colonels is of the greatest Assistance in forwarding the Works.

General Amherst further mentions, that, on the 14th of August he sent Major Christi to serve as Deputy Quarter Master General with Brigadier General Gage, and wrote to the Brigadier, repeating what he had before ordered, and recommending the taking Post at La Galette, as of the utmost Consequence, whereby we should be entire Masters of Lake Ontario, and his Majesty's Subjects on the Mohawk River would be thereby as effectually freed from all Incursions and Scaping Parties of the Enemy, as the whole Country from Crown Point to New York is, by the Reduction of Ticonderoga, and of that important Post. That on the 19th of September, the General, to his great Concern, received a Letter from Brigadier General Gage, dated the 11th, that he had been obliged to give over the Thoughts of taking Post at La Galette, from the many Difficulties and Impossibilities he found there would be in erecting a Post there before Winter, to which the General, on the 21st of September, wrote an Answer in the following Terms, viz. "That it is now indeed too late in the Season, or will be, before this can reach you, to make any Alterations, and I must give over the Thoughts of that very advantageous Post La Galette."

E. being directly on the Bar of Exmouth, about Four o'Clock last Sunday Morning, by the Violence of the Storm, the said Sloop was driven upon the said Bar, where she struck, and soon beat to Pieces, and all the Persons on board, except William James, were drowned; but Ten Pipes and Four Hog-heads of the Wine were taken up, and are secured in the King's Watch-house at Exeter.
