Published by Authority.

From Tuesday December 4, to Saturday December 8, 1759.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 9th Day of November, 1759;

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the 15th of May last, "For giving Encouragement to Seamen and able bodied Landmen to enter themselves on board His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves; for pardoning such Seamen as have deserted and shall return into the Service; and also for taking up all stragling Seamen," hath been prolonged and extended to this Ninth Day of November,—And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service; that the same should be continued for some Time longer—His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His privy Council, hereby Order that the said Time be prolonged and extended from this Ninth Day of November, to the Thirty First Day of December next, and that the Bounties and Rewards given and granted by His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation, be continued to be paid until the said Thirty-First Day of December next—Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Blair.

St. James's, December 8.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeses and Commonalty of the Town and County of the Town of Poole, having been transmitted by Sir Richard Lyttelton, Knight of the Bath, one of their Representatives in Parliament, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeses and Commonalty of the Town and County of the Town of Poole.

May it please your most gracious Majesty!

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeses and Commonalty of the Town and County of the Town of Poole, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the Success of your Majesty's Arms by Sea and Land, and to express the Joy we feel in the prosperous State of your Majesty's Dominions.

Warm as we are with the Love of our Country, and with a sincere Affection for your Majesty's most Sacred Person, and Government, the signal Victories gained over our Enemies by your Majesty's Forces in all Parts of the World, cannot but make a very sensible and lasting Impression upon us.

The Reduction of the French Naval Power, and the Vindication, the Support, and the Advancement of the Glory of the British Flag; the Deliverance, and Safety of your Majesty's Electoral Dominions; the Disappointment of our Enemies in their Attempt upon the Settlements of your Majesty's Subjects, the several Conquests made of their Possessions, particularly that great and important one of their Capital in North America, (purchased, indeed, by the Death of your Majesty's General, bravely fighting in his Country's Cause, a Cause, in which it is always glorious to die) are Events, that will for ever distinguish the present Time in the Annals of Britain.

The Happiness we experience, under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, in the great Security of our Trade and Commerce, in the full Enjoyment of our Rights and Properties, and in the constant Increase of all our National Advantages, for which we are, next to God, indebted to the wise and prudent Measures taken and steadily pursued in the Course of your Majesty's Administration, fills our Hearts with the highest Sentiments of Esteem and Gratitude.

Should our restless and inveterate Enemies, in Revenge for the Losses they have sustained, envious of our happy Condition, as the Subjects of your Majesty, and, in Agreement with their repeated Threatnings, rashly attempt to invade these Kingdoms, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will, to the utmost, exert ourselves in the Defence of your Majesty's most Sacred Person, and of our native Country, to which we shall never think our Lives and Fortunes too dear a Sacrifice.

May your Majesty's Life be long continued to us! May it be one Part of your Majesty's Happiness to see the Peace of Europe settled upon a sure and lasting Foundation! And may your Majesty always enjoy the particular Pleasure and Satisfaction arising to yourself from a Sense of the Security and Prosperity of your People.

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Burgeses and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury, in the County of Gloucester, having been transmitted by Henry Whitaker, Esq; their Town Clerk, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgeses and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury, in the County of Gloucester, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeses and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury, in the County of Gloucester, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the continued Success of your Majesty's Arms by Sea and Land, in the many glorious Events of this Year. Such a Series of uninterrupted Victories, must convince your Majesty's Enemies, that the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, the Courage and Conduct of your Commanders, and the Resolution of your Fleets and Armies, are superior to the greatest Difficulties.

To these we add our most humble Acknowledgments for your Majesty's unwearied Endeavours in the vigorous Prosecution of the present just and necessary War, entered into by your Majesty for recovering and protecting the undoubted Rights of your Subjects.

And permit us, most dread Sovereign, to subjoin our most hearty Prayers, that when your Majesty, in the further Prosecution thereof, shall compel your Enemies to sue for Peace; such a Peace may be established, established, as shall be solid, lasting, honourable, and as advantageous to Great Britain, as the present War has been glorious; and that your Majesty may long reign over a free and grateful People.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed, at the Tolsy in the said Borough, the Twenty Ninth Day of November, in the Thirty Third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heretors of the County of Berwick, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Marchmont; and the Hon. Al. Hume Campbell, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Berwick, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heretors of the County of Berwick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heretors of the County of Berwick, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, with the most respectful Assurances of our Duty and zealous Fidelity to your Majesty's Sacred Person, to your Royal Family, and to your Beneficent Government.

This County having the Honour to be distinguished for its Force, having been of some Utility towards supporting the Protestant Succession, when it first took Place in your Majesty's Illustrious House; we desire to declare to your Majesty the Continuation of our Readiness and Zeal to exert, upon every Occasion, the same Spirit, in Defence of your Majesty's Royal Person, and of the present happy Establishment.

By the antient Laws of Scotland, the Subjects were obliged to provide themselves with Arms, and other warlike Necessaries, and by Commissions and Instructions to Deputy Lieutenants, lately issued here, reference is made to those Laws: But such has been the uninterrupted Happiness we have enjoyed under your Majesty's auspicious Government, that your Subjects of this County have never thought it necessary to provide themselves with Arms.

We therefore on this Occasion become most humble Suitors to your Majesty, that if your Majesty think fit, that the utmost Exertion of the Force of this County, should at this Time be in any Manner employed for your Majesty's Service, you would be graciously pleased, by ordering us to be furnished with Arms, (as was done in 1715 by your Majesty's Royal Father) to enable us to demonstrate, with how much Cheerfulness and Zeal we desire to express our Gratitude, for the many Blessings we derive from your Majesty's paternal Care.

Having this Occasion to approach your Majesty, permit us, most gracious Sovereign, with all Duty, to offer our most humble Congratulations on the glorious Successes that have attended your Majesty's Arms, by Sea and Land, and to assure your Majesty, that the Loyalty and Resolution of our Fellow Subjects Abroad, shall be the object of our Imitation at Home, whenever your Majesty shall do us the Honour to call for our Service.

Signed in the Presence, and by Order of the Meeting, in their Name, by MARCHMONT.

The following Address of the Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the Port of Whitehaven, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir James Lowther, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Cumberland, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the Port of Whitehaven.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the Port of Whitehaven, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our unfeigned Congratulations upon the late important Success of your Majesty's Arms; a Success diversified by so many happy Events in all the several Quarters of the World is scarce to be paralleled in History, and cannot fail to reflect a distinguished Lustre upon the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, upon the Conduct of your General, and upon the Valour of your Fleets and Armies, to the remotest Periods of Time.

The Reduction of Quebec, the Capital of the Enemy's Dominions in North America, together with several other strong and important Fortresses; the Destruction of a considerable Part of their Naval Force, and the weakening and enervating the rest by an inglorious Inactivity within their own Ports, while the Resolution of your Majesty's Fleets have triumphed over the Elements themselves, are Events which give us the highest Pleasure, not so much as they distress our Enemy, but as they afford the agreeable Prospect of securing and enlarging our Commerce, and adding Stability to the many invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government. And our Joy is increased to reflect, that all this glorious Success hath been obtained with so little Loss of our Fellow Subjects, except that much lamented one of the General, who, even in Death, had the Satisfaction to triumph over the Enemy of his Country.

And as we felt a most sensible Concern for the Distress of your most loyal Subjects of Hanover, our most faithful Allies, whom the Pride and Cruelty of the Enemy had devoted to Destruction in a most unexampled Manner, without any other Provocation than the sharing with us the Blessings of your Majesty's just and equitable Government, so we reflect with the highest Pleasure, upon their Deliverance by one of the most glorious Victories recorded in History.

With Hearts filled with the warmest Sentiments of Duty and Loyalty, permit us, most gracious Sovereign, to address our Thanks to your Majesty, next under Heaven, the glorious Instrument of so many invaluable Blessings, whose Paternal Care hath left little more to your People, in their National Capacity, to request of Providence, but that He would vouchsafe to add Perpetuity to these Blessings, by granting your Majesty a long and happy Reign over us, and that there may never be wanting a Prince of your Illustrious Family to sway the Scepter of these Kingdoms to remotest Ages.

But if, as the last Effort of Despair, and in order to deprive us of these invaluable Blessings, the Ambition of the Enemy should prompt them to invade these Kingdoms, we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most ardent Zeal in Defence of your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government with our Lives and Fortunes, and by all other lawful Means within our Power.

King of Prussia's Head Quarters at Willidriff, Nov 24.
On the 22d Instant, we received here the very disagreeable News of the Event that has happened to Lieutenant General Finck, and the Troops under his Command. He had been detached by his Prussian Majesty to take Post at Maxen, a small Village situated in the Road from Saxony into Bohemia, which he accordingly effected. On the 20th he was attacked by a superior Force of the Enemy, and drove from his Post, retiring by Dohna; but on the next Day, finding himself surrounded on all Sides by the Austrians, he was obliged to capitulate, and accordingly surrendered himself Prisoner of War, together with with eight other General Officers, and his whole Corps, which is reckoned to consist of about 35 Squadrons and 17 Battalions; the latter however much weakened by the Campaign they had made against the Russians.

We thought Yesterday that we were at the Eve of a Battle; the Austrians having advanced towards the Post of Kesselsdorff, which was occupied by General Zieten with our Van Guard, and having even begun cannonading that Village, though without any Effect. The King being informed of it, ordered the Army immediately to advance; but the Enemy having probably no serious Intention to come to a general Action, retired before we were able to engage them. To-day every Thing remains quiet.

Hague, Dec. 4. The last Letters bring nothing very interesting from the Armies upon the Lahn. Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters continue still at Krossdorf, and the French are encamped about Griesen. Nor has any Change happened lately in their respective Position, except by the Detachments made, on each Side, of their Cavalry into Quarters of Cantonments. M. de Broglio has sent a Body of Troops to penetrate by the Country of Fulde into Lower Hesse, and his Serene Highness, it was said, was preparing to detach a Corps to oppose them, having recalled that which had marched, under the Prince of Bevern, towards the Country of Cologne.

Whitehall, December 8.

The King has been pleased to appoint, Thomas Wroughton, Esq; to be Consul General for the several Parts of the Russian Empire, wherein His Majesty's British Subjects have Trade and Commerce.

Admiralty Office, December 8.

The King has been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Edward Boscawen, Esq; Admiral of the Blue, to be General of the Marine Forces: And,

Also to appoint Charles Saunders, Esq; Vice-Admiral of the Blue, to be Lieutenant General of the said Forces.

Dublin, December 1.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales's Birth-day, the Great Guns were fired in the Phoenix Park, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks: At Noon there was a very splendid Appearance of the Nobility, and other Persons of Distinction, at the Castle, to compliment his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, upon this Occasion: In the Evening a Play was given by his Grace for the Entertainment of the Ladies, and a Ball at the Castle; and the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy.

Custom-House, London, Dec. 7, 1759.

The Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs gives Notice, that he will be ready, on the 17th Day of December Instant, and the four following usual Days of Payment, to pay all Out-Port Corn Duties that shall then be due and payable, without Interest.

The said Receiver General gives this further Notice, that in Case any of the said Duties shall remain unpaid for want of being tendered for Payment on one of the five Days above-mentioned, that no Interest will be paid thereon.
