

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday January 15; to Saturday January 19, 1760.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th Day of December, 1759.

P R E S E N T,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the 15th of May last, "For giving Encouragement to Seamen and able bodied Landmen to enter themselves on board His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves; for pardoning such Seamen as have deserted and shall return into the Service; and also for taking up all stragling Seamen," hath been prolonged and extended to the 31st of this Instant December; — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer—His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His privy Council, hereby Order that the said Time be prolonged and extended from the aforesaid 31st Day of this Instant December, to the 11th Day of February next; and that the Bounties and Rewards given and granted by His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation, be continued to be paid until the said 11th Day of February next—Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Blair.

St. James's, January 19.

The following Address of the Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of the Land Tax of the County of Aberdeen, has been presented to His Majesty by David Scott, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the Town of Aberdeen, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of the Land Tax of your County of Aberdeen, convened at a general Meeting, adore the Almighty Goodness which prolongs your Majesty's Life for the Prosperity of your several Dominions.

We have a lively and grateful Sense of the wise and vigorous Measures, which make Conquests Abroad with Humanity, and yet grant Protection at Home with Ease to the Subject, and Confusion to the Enemy, whose Armies have been defeated, whose Fleets have been dispersed, and whose violent Attempts have in one Campaign been reduced to Impotence.

Your Majesty supports a magnanimous Ally and the Protestant Liberties against the accumulated Force of a potent and rapacious Combination: How glorious the Exertion, how successful the Endeavours, may Providence continue to verify, and Fame transmit to Futurity!

May Self Approbation and Tranquillity personally attend your Majesty, while happy Subjects enjoy your precious Life: And may after Ages find in your Royal Posterity on these Thrones, the Blessings derived from Imitation of a Monarch, whose publick Speech told neighbouring Nations, envious of British Happiness, "That the Laws of our Land was the Measure of his Government." A Monarch, whose glorious Example in Justice, Fortitude and Mercy, established a lasting Dominion in the affectionate Hearts of a free and well united People.

Such Considerations animate us, in our respective Stations, to promote every Measure, Civil or Military, under your Majesty's Directions; confiding in the well known and peculiar Rectitude of such a Sovereign, we patiently wait the Effects of a firm Peace, established on the abiding Consequences of a vigorous and well conducted War.

Signed in Presence and by Order of the said general Meeting, Archibald Grant, Prefes. Aberdeen, Dec. 21, 1759.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Town-Council of Dundee, has been presented to His Majesty by the Honourable Thomas Leslie, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Town-Council of Dundee, beg Leave humbly to present your Majesty with our most sincere Congratulations upon the truly wonderful and glorious Train of Success, with which it has pleased the Divine Providence to crown your Majesty's Counsels and Arms during the Course of this last and ever memorable Year.

To observe in all Quarters of the World every Design of our publick Enemy defeated, and at the same Time your Majesty's Undertakings succeeded beyond our

[ Price Three-Pence. ]