THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having by Virtue of the Power given unto them by an Act of Parliament lately passed for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the Service of the Year 1760, directed Exchequer Bills to be made forth for several Sums payable in Course on the Credit of the said Land Tax Act, which said Bills are to bear Interest at the Rate of Two-pence by the Day for every 100 l. and are to pass and be current in all Revenues, Aids, Taxes, and Supplies whatsoever, and at the Receipt of Exchequer, according to the said Act.

And whereas all and every Receivers and Collectors in Great Britain, of the Customs, Excise, or any Revenue, Aid, Tax, or Supply whatsoever already granted, due or payable, or which shall or may hereafter be granted, due or payable to His Majesty, his Heirs, and Successors, are by the said

Act directed and required out of any current coined Money as shall then be in his or their Hands, of such Revenue, Aid, Tax, or Supply, to pay such of the same Bills as shall be brought to them respectively, by any Person or Persons desiring to have Money for the same, under the Penalties in the said Act perscribed: The said Lords Commissioners do hereby give Notice to, and command and strictly charge and require, all and every such Receivers and Collectors, that they do observe and comply with the Directions of the said Act, in respect of the said Exchequer Bills.

Admiralty-Office, February 23, 1760.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of a late Act of Parliament, intituled, An Act to explain and amend an Act made in the Twentieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen, and the more speedy and effectual manning His Majesty's Navy; and for the better Prevention of Piracies and Robberies by Crews of private Ships of War, a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas, within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held on Friday the Twenty-eighth Day of March next, at Justice Hall in the Old Bailey, London, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning.

Notice is also hereby given, that for the future an Admiralty Session will be held in the several Months of March and October in every Year, pursuant to the Directions of the said Act of Parliament.

Pb. Stephens.

The Deputy Lieutenants of the County of Middlesex are desired to meet at Mr. Lamb's House in Pall-mall, on Monday the 3d Day of March next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, it being the Second General Meeting appointed for putting into Execution the several Laws relating to the Militia Forces of this Kingdom.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Devonshire House, Feb. 25, 1760.

Whereas a Number of Gentlemen have offered themselves to serve as Officers in the Militia for the County of Derby, sufficient to enable the Deputy Lieutenants to proceed in carrying the Acts of Parliament for raising the Militia into Execution; but as several Officers are still wanting to compleat the Whole Number requisite for one Battalion, the Deputy Lieutenants are desired and directed to meet at the George Inn in Derby, on Wednesday the 26th Day of March next, to receive the Names of such Persons as are qualified and willing to accept Commissions, and to proceed in the Execution of the Acts of Parliament made for raising the Militia.

DEVONSHIRE.

February 25, 1760.

His Majesty's Lieutenant of the County of Buckingham doth hereby appoint a General Meeting, to be held in the Forenoon, at Aylesbury, on Wednesday March the 5th, for carrying the Directions of the several Militia Acts into further Execution.

TEMPLE, C. P. S.

[ Price Three-Pence. ]

Whitehall, February 23, 1760.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that the three following Robberies have been lately committed, viz.

First, That the Dwelling House of William Black, Esq; in New Broad Street, London, was broke into between Five and Six o'Clock on Sunday Morning, the 10th Instant, and robbed of the following Plate, 3 Sabvers, 1 Milk Pot, 1 Boat, 6 Small Spoons, 1 Coffee Pot, 2 Salts, 2 Shovels, 1 Pair of Tongues, 1 Candlestick, 1 Tea Kettle, 1 Stand with 3 Castors, 1 Pair of large Candlesticks, and several other Things unknown.

Second, That the Dwelling House of Joshua Sugden, at the King's Arms, in New Broad Street Passage, leading to Bishopsgate, Publican, was, early on Friday Morning, the 15th Instant, broke into, and a Scrutore broke open, and the following Sums of Money stolen thereout, 90 Guineas, in a Harden Bag, 9 1/2 lay loose, 4 Guineas in half Guineas, 6 Crown Pieces, viz. 2 King William's, 2 King James's, and 2 Queen Anne's, and about 6 Pounds in Silver loose, the Property of the said Joshua Sugden.

And the Third, That sundry wicked and evil disposed Persons did, on Monday last, the 18th Instant, find Means to get into the House of Samuel Lloyd, of Devonshire Square, Merchant, and a little after Three o'Clock in the Morning, one of them, with a Vizard Mask on, did enter the Chamber of the said Samuel Lloyd, habited like a Sailor, with a Pistol tuck'd in the Waistband of his Trowsers, a Dark Lanthorn in his Right Hand, and a broad Blade Butcher's Knife in his Left, came to his Bed Side, and, in a menacing low Tone, demanded the said Samuel Lloyd to give him All his Money, ordering him, at the same Time not to speak loud, or make a Noise, or else would cut his Throat; and when he was told where the Cash was, demanded the Key of the Compting House, and also whether the Cash was in a Drawer, Bag, or Purse,—and after receiving said Keys gave them, (as the said Samuel Lloyd supposes,) to some of his Accomplices, while he stood Centinel at said Chamber-Door, and who, thro' either not knowing how to use said Keys, or being in Hast, broke open the Door of the Compting-House, and also wrench'd open two Desks therein, and took out from thence to the Value of about 150 l. in Specie; among which were about fifty Shillings in Crown and Half-Crown Pieces, and the rest chiefly in Guineas, except some few Portugal Pieces.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in all, or either of the said Robberies, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one concerned in all, or either of the said Robberies, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. PITT.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said William Black, of New Broad Street, does hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Person, who shall discover his, or her Accomplice or Accomplices, who broke into, and robbed his House as aforesaid, to be paid upon the lawful Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

William Black.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Samuel Lloyd, of Devonshire Square, does hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Person or Persons, who shall give any Information relating to the said Robbery, (committed in his House) so that the Person or Persons concerned therein may be lawfully convicted.

Samuel Lloyd.

And, as a still further Encouragement, the Ward of Bishopsgate Without do promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid by the Deputy of the said Ward, to any Person, or Persons, who shall make any Discovery, so as to convict the Perpetrators of the above three Robberies, or a proportionable Part for either of the said Robberies that shall be discovered.

Uppington Bracee, Deputy.

Whitehall, February 19, 1760.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That an Anonymous Letter has been sent to Colonel John Lee, directed, "for that old roge Jack Lee at Alfox;" Which Letter is as follows, viz. "if You dont stop " Your proceedings Immediately About the Militia " your dwelling shall be demolished and your Carkis " sent to the diuel for a fer beard. 1760." His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person, or Persons, concerned in Writing the said Letter, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person, that actually wrote the same,) who shall discover his, or her Accomplice, or Accomplices, therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended, and convicted thereof; and also a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders. W. PITT.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Colonel John Lee does hereby offer a Reward of Twenty Guineas, to any Person, or Persons, making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of one, or more of the Offenders.
