D&D Perkins Properties Ltd is a private company, limited by shares, registered in England and Wales, registration number 10481372, registration address Unit 2D Tomo Industrial Estate, Packet Boat Lane, Uxbridge, UB8 2JP

The presentation currency is £ sterling.

1. Accounting policies

Significant accounting policies

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the provisions of Section 1A

"Small Entities" of Financial Reporting Standard 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" and the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for the modification to a fair value basis for certain financial instruments as specified in the accounting policies below.

The company has taken advantage of the following disclosure exemptions with FRS 102 Section

1A:

- The requirement to present a statement of cash flows and related notes
- Financial instrument disclosures, including;
categories of financial instruments, items of income, expenses, gains or losses relating to financial instruments, and exposure to and management of financial risks.

Going concern basis

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis. The company's forecasts and projections, taking into account potential changes in trading patterns, indicate that the company will be able to continue current operations for the foreseeable future.

Turnover

Turnover is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable net of VAT and trade discounts. Turnover includes revenue earned from the the rental of property, the policies adopted are as follows:

- Rental of Property: Turnover from the rental of property is recognised on an accrual basis in line with the contract in place with the tenant. Rents are recognised when due for payment.
- Other revenue: Recognition is when it is received or when the right to receive payment is established.

Taxation

Taxation represents the sum of tax currently payable and deferred tax. Tax is recognised in the statement of income, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in capital and reserves.

The company's liability for current tax is calculated using the tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date. Current and deferred tax assets and liabilities are not discounted

Investment properties

Investment properties are included in the balance sheet at their open market value at the balance sheet date. The resulting aggregate surplus or deficit is transferred to the profit and loss account via Fair Value Adjustment.

Depreciation is provided only on those investment properties which are leasehold and where the unexpired lease term is less than 20 years. Although this accounting policy is in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective January 2015), it is a departure from the general requirement of the Companies Act 2006 for all tangible assets to be depreciated. In the opinion of the directors compliance with the standard is necessary for the financial statements to give a true and fair view. Depreciation or amortisation is only one of many factors reflected in the annual valuation and the amount of this which might otherwise have been charged cannot be separately identified or quantified.
