Dear Sirs

Capital Translations

We refer to our telephone conversation with Mr Slater today and return the Form LP5 lodged by us on 30th July in connection with the registration of the above limited partnership.

As you will see the reason given for rejecting the Form was the omission of the addresses for the general and limited partners. This omission was quite deliberate on our part as in terms of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 there is no requirement to provide that information.

We understand that you accept this position and that accordingly the Partnership will now be registered forthwith. We look forward to receiving the Registration Certificate as soon as possible.

Yours faithfully

Bishop and Robertson Chalmers
